School gym fire quelled —only slight damage toll

Two Granite City Fire Department pumps and an aerial truck responded to a call at Granite City High School North Wednesday at 8:08 a.m.

School personnel had confined the fire to three lockers, at left, in the second level boys' locker room in the gymnasium when firemen arrived at the scene.

A similar fire occurred in the same area as Wednesday's fire in early October.

Pete Robinson, cross-country coach, was the first to be aware of smoke in the locker area yesterday and was able to secure a fire extinguisher and extinguish the flames.

Football, soccer and other sports gear in addition to personal belongings were destroyed.

The equipment is smoldering outside of the gymnasium as firemen carry a smoke ejector into the building, in the picture at right.

Damage to the lockers and contents and smoke damage are estimated at a total of $1,000.

Village 2 years late in obtaining audits

by a certified public accountant since the fiscal year which ended April 30, 1977, and the village will be two years delinquent in filing its audit reports with the state at the end of this month, the Press-Record learned early this week.

Action was taken by the village board Tuesday night, hiring Tregresser & Associates of Belleville to conduct the audits at a cost of $880. The auditing work is to begin today.

The action taken after immediate audits was undertaken after the Press-Record contacted several officials Monday afternoon to inquire why the reports had not been filed.

Village Board President Paul Bennett said Monday, "I wasn't aware there had been no audit last year until last week when they (the state comptroller's office) called. I contacted Duane Skinner (a village trustee whose wife is village treasurer) and he said he was taking care of it."

Skinner said Monday that he is a friend of the accountant who was supposed to do the audits of the last two fiscal years, and added, "Possibly I let my friendship interfere with good judgment and let this thing go on too long."

It is now being made Skinner's task to recommend firms the trustees can hire to audit his wife's financial books. Skinner is an accountant, but could not do the audit himself due to being a village official.

He explained that the village con-

Mistake may free man in GC shooting

Jerry D. Sidwell, 30, Granite City, who was charged with attempted murder in the shooting of a Granite City man in September 1978—and then with several charges for allegedly driving a stolen car and allegedly attempting to run over a Collinsville policeman last November—could be a free man in January partly as the result of a mistake someone made.

The question of who made the mistake which led to a short prison term is being passed from local and county officials to the courts, Menard Penitentiary and others.

Sidwell was allowed to plead guilty to a reduced charge of aggravated battery and charges of theft and resisting a police officer in return for a negotiated sentence of two years in prison. Circuit Judge Victor J. Moske pronounced sentence in Edwardsville Monday. With time already served in prison and with allowances for good behavior, he could be freed in January 1980, officials said.

Richard Rybak, an assistant state's attorney, said the reason Sidwell was not tried for two alleged attempted murders was that he had been sent, by a court order, to Menard Penitentiary's hospital in Chester to recuperate from bullet wounds he suffered when the Collinsville police officer he allegedly was attempting to run over with a car shot him twice Nov. 3, 1978.

When Sidwell left the hospital in December 1978, he was kept at the penitentiary, but local officials were not notified he was available for trial.

The "clock began ticking" under the Illinois speedy trial law when Sidwell was discharged from the hospital and

Need drastic step to avert chaos on energy — Butler

If Americans do not open their minds to the need for immediate and drastic action to develop infinitely renewable alternate energy sources—and save as much energy as possible in all sectors of the economy—they are heading for the greatest period of social upheaval and economic tribulations this country has ever known, a well-known energy observer said last week.

Former Granite Cityan Robert Butler, editor of Energy User News, a major industry publication, delivered this assessment in a keynote speech at the opening session of the Energy Production and Management Expo, held in Anchorage, Alaska. His parents reside in Granite City.

Butler also assailed a "crisis mentality" which he said leads Americans into ignoring any problem not drastically impinging on their everyday lives.

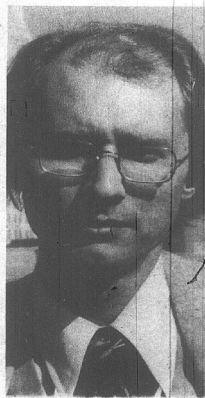

"This mentality has, along with other public issues, led us to suffer urban riots and a protracted, futile, foreign war," he said.

"If we apply the same mentality to energy supply problems which are only sporadically visible to us, we are heading for a national disaster," he said.

Butler was sharply critical of President Jimmy Carter's approach to the problem.

When Pres. Carter came down from Camp David at the end of July, he had a

City needs to tighten its belt

Families are not the only groups which need to "tighten their belts" to make ends meet financially in these days of inflation, the Granite City Council was warned Tuesday night.

David Nolan, administrative assistant to the mayor, told the council in a letter, "During the last few months, I have been taking a hard look at expenditures being made. With the facts I have put together and information passed on by Mr. (Arvil) Taylor (Nolan's predecessor), I have come to some conclusions which will require the immediate and constant attention of the council."

"During the first five months of this budget year, Mr. Taylor and I have been holding monthly departmental meetings with the various supervisors.

On a whole, these meetings have maintained a below estimate expenditure level concerning general funds. There are a few line items in the budget which have been hit hard, due to inflation and the increased price of oil.

"However, there also exist expenditures over budgets in accounts controlled by council action. Expenditures in accounts with low revenues deplete revenues which normally would go to other budget items.

"What are affecting the city the most are expenditures which are not actually budgeted, examples being merit raises, employee hiring, purchasing of

Alderman is warned

By GARY SCHNEIDER

of the Press-Record

During a heated exchange at Tuesday night's Granite City Council meeting, Mayor Paul Schuler indicated he may initiate actions designed to remove First Ward Alderman Charles Douglas from the board, before Douglas' 1977-81 term expires.

The mayor became agitated after Douglas criticized the operations of the city's police and fire departments and alleged one city official "golfes every Thursday and is gone every Friday. I wonder if he works 40 hours a week," Douglas said.

Schuler responded, "Are you making

More rights for residents of Illinois nursing homes

(Office of Lieutenant Governor Dave O'Neal)
Q. I understand that the governor signed a new law about nursing homes this summer. What does it do?
A. The governor signed Senate Bill 316 on Aug. 23, creating the Nursing Home Care Reform Act of 1979. The new law becomes effective on March 1, 1980.

It contains several important new provisions. The law creates residents' rights for those who live in long-term care facilities:
—The right to manage his or her own finances.
—The right to personal property and clothing.
—The right to his or her own physician.

—The right to privacy.
—The right to free communication.
—The right to choose visitors.
—The right to conjugal living by married persons.
—Freedom from punishment by restraints.
—Freedom from abuse.
—Freedom to exercise religion.
—Freedom from involuntary discharge without a hearing.
The law requires each long-term care facility to have a residents' council. It provides strong enforcement tools for the state to use in dealing with substandard providers:

1. It requires full ownership disclosure.
2. It allows inspections for compliance.
3. It allows the department to issue temporary or conditional licenses.
4. It allows the department to fine those facilities not in compliance.
5. It allows the department to revoke licenses.
6. It allows the department to provide monitors in facilities with poor performance.
7. It provides for court order receivership in order to protect patients in a home which is bankrupt, abandoned, or totally out of compliance with the regulations.

Q. Does the new law do anything to improve the quality of care?
A. The law requires that nurses' aides, orderlies and technicians take a certified training course in the basics of patient care.
Many feel that this is an important step in improving the quality of care in long-term care facilities. Better training for nurses' aides should improve morale, help decrease turnover, and reduce accidents and errors in patient care.
Residents' councils in long-term care facilities provide a unique opportunity for participating in the functioning of the home.

Such councils provide residents with a sense of community and of civic price, as well as a mechanism for resolving disagreements with the home's management or with staff or other patients.

Quad-Cityans may write or call Lieutenant Governor Dave O'Neal's Senior Action Centers at 160 N. LaSalle St., Chicago 60601, or 3 West Old Town Mall, Springfield 62701 with questions or concerns about any government agency or programs.

1980 South Yearbook on sale at school

Rebecca J. Corzilius, editor of the 1979 Granite City High School South Warrior yearbook, has presented the book to the co-editors in charge of the 1980 Warrior book.

Miss Corzilius' book was selected as a national sample and was distributed throughout the United States.
"I appreciate all the help I received from the sponsor and the staff," she said. "I also must mention the good job Phyllis Weiss did in drawing the cover of the book."

Co-editors in charge of the 1980 book are Gina Gibson and Ann Modrusic. Miss Gibson is in charge of activities and Miss Modrusic is responsible for the classes.
The 1980 book is on sale at South today and tomorrow. The price of this year's book is $10.50.
"Announcements will be made at school in regard to where the book will be sold," Anne Modrusic said. "There will be yearbook posters throughout the building."

"It will contain more color pictures than last year's book," says Gina Gibson. "It also will contain approximately 40 more pages than the 1979 book. We want everyone to buy one, especially all the seniors."
"The yearbook staff will be giving everyone who purchases a book either a bumper sticker or an iron-on decal," Miss Modrusic noted.

Class here in water painting

The Granite City Park District will be offering a class in water painting to be held at the Nameoki Recreation Center on Saturday, Nov. 3. The cost of the class is $10 and includes all supplies.
The painting is that of a winter scene and is on display in the Wilson Park office. The picture will be completed in one day.
"We feel fortunate to have found the instructor we have to teach this class. She teaches for Belleville Area College and various areas of St. Louis County, and is highly qualified," a park spokesman said.
The class will be limited to 10 students.

BASKINS-ROBBINS TOUR BY BROWNIES
Brownie Troop 490 from Wilson School took a tour of Baskins-Robbins last week. Mrs. Becky Jones told the girls all about ice cream, keeping it and decorating it. All the girls participated in decorating their own ice cream cone.

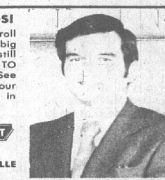

Those attending were Meskin Barton, Amy Briggs, Sheri Dadara, Tracy Dodd, Tina Dickerson, Nicole Futrell, Christy Herren, Wendy Herren, Jennifer Linnhan, Lisa Miller, Jennifer Monez, Shannon Murray, Bradl Myers, Cheryl Thomas, Dawn Hartzell, Tara Edwards, Mrs. Louise Dodd, Mrs. Betty Thomas and daughter, Lynn, Mrs. Ann Futrell, Mrs. Pam Myers, co-leader, and Mrs. Cheryl Barton, leader.

MONEY IS TAKEN
A small amount of money is all that is known missing from the apartment of Rose Larson, 2162 State St., in a burglary Monday evening. A hap and padlock were pried from a door to gain entry.

Crusade activities at Niedringhaus Church

Niedringhaus United Methodist Church is in the process of an intensive financial crusade. Walter T. Jones, director of stewardship programs, will be assisting the local Crusade Committee of Niedringhaus Church in this concerted effort.

Jones will be preaching during the morning worship services at 10:15 Oct. 28 and Nov. 4. He will meet with all the executive members of the Crusade Committee this evening at 7.

Delton Groothuis and Larry Reader are co-chairmen of the Crusade Committee. One of the highlights will be a crusade dinner on Oct. 30 at 6:30 p.m.

At next Tuesday's dinner, the volunteers to do the canvassing of the congregation will turn in their pledge cards for the 1980 budget and a three-year commitment toward the debt retirement of the sanctuary.

Jones works for the Office of Finance and Field Service of the Board of Global Ministries of the United Methodist Church. The main office is located at 475 Riverside Drive in New York City.

He was born in Adolphus, Ky., and is a member of the

WALTER T. JONES

Louisville Annual Conference of Kentucky.

Jones has served churches in Sturgis, Greenville, Owensboro and Louisville (all of Kentucky) and campus minister at the University of Louisville for three years. He served as trustee of Union College in Kentucky for eight years.

All members and friends of Niedringhaus are being invited to meet Mr. and Mrs. Jones during their stay in Granite City from tonight through Nov. 6. The Rev. Louis Frick is pastor.

Question bus driver

Granite City police detectives have questioned the driver of a Bi-State bus thought to have been involved in an incident Thursday, Oct. 18, in which a girl said she was frightened by the erratic behavior of the driver.

The girl said she boarded the bus at Pontiac and Nameoki roads in the morning enroute to Grigsby Junior High School and she said the bus was driven at a high rate of speed and erratic manner. At Cargill Road, the driver refused to open the bus door, so she kicked a glass pane, breaking it, she said.

The driver still refused to open the door, but finally did so, the girl related.

At 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, a 29-year-old St. Louis man who had been driving a bus on that route at that time came to the detective office in Granite City and denied knowledge of the incident.

Bi-State officials said they checked the man's bus when it first returned to the garage and found all the windows intact.

The man was photographed and released after he agreed to submit to a lie-detector test, if necessary.

INDIAN CHIEF Paul Hopper, director of maintenance at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, checks patient Billy Horn's scalp, possibly for use in his "collection of scalps." Hopper, a blood Indian, was dressed in full costume as part of the hospital's Old Six Mile Prairie Day, a celebration for medical center employees and their families. Billy Horn is the son of Brenda S. Harris of Madison.

Survival training for Simmons

Marine Pfc. Timothy M. Simmons, son of Charles F. and Mary J. Simmons, 2569 Revere's Route, Granite City, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

During the ten and one-half-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to typical daily routine that he will experience, and studied the personal and professional standards exhibited by Marines.

Pfc. Simmons participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in varied military skills, including first-aid, rifle marksmanship and close order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

A 1979 Granite City high school graduate, he joined the Marine Corps in August.

Golden Agers plan events

Plans for a Halloween party Wednesday night, Oct. 31, at the senior citizens' center and for a potluck at noon on Tuesday, Nov. 13, at the Kirkpatrick Homes Recreation Center were discussed during Tuesday's meeting of the Golden Agers at Kirkpatrick Homes.

At the Halloween party, prizes will be awarded for the best dressed, funniest and most original costumes on senior citizens. The event will be from 7 to 10 p.m. Wednesday.

The potluck will begin at noon Nov. 13 and those attending are being urged to bring a covered dish.

This week's meeting of the Golden Agers was to have included the annual nomination of officers, but President Juanita Crawley was unable to attend, so the nominations were postponed until the next business meeting Nov. 27.

Ruby Corbett conducted the meeting in the absence of Mrs. Crawley. She led the group in the Lord's Prayer and Pledge of Allegiance.

Birthday celebrations for Ida Kastell, Pauline Cox and Esther Stark. A luncheon was served by Peggy Gibbons, Elva Stearns, Era Hansell, Caroline Lux and Ida Kastell.

Guilty plea on beating

Gary L. Nance, 19, Wood River, pleaded guilty to battery yesterday in connection with the severe beating Oct. 14 of Michael G. Catthers, 18, of 1709 rem. Cleveland Blvd., while both were prisoners in the Madison County Jail. Nance is to be sentenced Nov. 6.

He was charged in a criminal complaint signed by Detective Steve Nunn of the sheriff's department before Associate Judge Edward Ferguson.

The case against Nance was presented to the warrant office of the Madison County state's attorney's office, but State's Attorney Nicholas G. Byron and Assistant State's Attorney Keith Jensen refused to issue a felony warrant. Deputies then decided to issue the misdemeanor complaint.

Catthers suffered a cut to the back of his head which required eight sutures and a cut to his cheek needing six stitches. He has been released from a hospital and is free on bond.

Chief of Detectives Robert Herz of the sheriff's office said he anticipates Nance will be the only person charged in connection with the beating. Initial reports that more than one prisoner may have instigated the incident were not borne out by investigation, he added.

Burglar takes dishes, guitar

Park board honors Mrs. Lindner

Mrs. Rosemarie Lindner, a 12-year employee of the Granite City Park District, was presented a framed resolution of commendation Wednesday evening by park board President George Sykes.

She has resigned her position as director of the Granite City preschool program and will be working in the Hospice Program at St. Elizabeth Medical Center. Mrs. Lindner began working for the park district as a secretary in the park office. Mrs. Cheryl Humphreys, assistant director of the preschool program for the past several years, has been appointed the pre-school director to succeed Mrs. Lindner.

Harold Brown, director of parks and recreation, reported that the cooling tower fan at the ice rink broke down, causing the ice to melt on Sunday, Oct. 21. Repairs have been made and the rink was put back into use Wednesday evening. Park district ID card photos for residents of the park district will be taken this evening at the ice rink from 7 to 9 p.m. Proof of residency, such as an utility bill with name and address, is necessary to obtain the card, which is good for three years. Cost is $1.

Chouteau fights GC annexations without voting

Still angered about an annexation by Granite City and Granite City Township of industrial property owned by Illinois Power in Chouteau Township last December, the Chouteau Town Board of Trustees Monday night passed a resolution asking the Illinois Township Officials organization to draft and support legislation to prevent such "takeovers" in the future. Since Granite City and Granite City Township share the same boundaries, under state law, annexation by the city of any tract of land automatically puts that tract in Granite City Township. The Chouteau Board is asking that the township officials group urge the General Assembly to support legislation prohibiting co-extensive townships from taking land from other townships without a referendum.

Henry Kahle, 88, dies

Henry Kahle, 88, of 2635 Iowa St., a resident of Granite City for more than 70 years, died at 5 p.m. Wednesday at Colonial Haven Nursing Home.

He had been ill two weeks and a patient at St. Elizabeth Medical Center for the same period of time.

Mr. Kahle was transferred to the nursing facility just five hours before he died.

He had retired in 1963 as a guard from Granite City Steel, where he was employed 36 years.

Mr. Kahle had been a member of Concordia Lutheran Church since the church was established here. He was a native of Litchfield, Ill.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Emma (Albers) Kahle; two sons, David Kahle of Clovis, Calif., and Paul Kahle of Orlando, Fla.; a brother, Elmer Kahle of Bristol, Conn.; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

JFK DANCE SUNDAY

The annual John F. Kennedy dinner dance will take place at 7 p.m. Sunday at St. Mary's Englebert Parish Hall, 10th Street and Washington Avenue, Madison. The event is being sponsored by the Madison County Democratic Central Committee, with state and local officials and candidates expected to attend.

tracted with Tregresser to do the audit for the fiscal year which ended April 30, 1978, and Tregresser assigned it to Steve Wilfong of the firm.

"They did not get to it in a very timely manner," Skinner said, adding that in October or November of last year, he talked to Wilfong to ask when the village was going to get the audit. Wilfong told Skinner he was going to leave the Tregresser firm. "He said if we would wait, he would do it for us at the same fee," Skinner contended.

Wilfong told the Press-Record he was contacted by Skinner in January 1979 and asked to audit the village books. "I told him I was leaving Tregresser and would prefer not to do it," Wilfong said. In April 1979, Skinner went to Wilfong's new office and asked again if Wilfong would audit the books. "I said I didn't want to do it, since Tregresser had the records and there were some difficulties created when I broke from Tregresser. However, I told him that if he could get a release of the files from Tregresser, I would help him," Wilfong stated.

He also said he demanded a letter from the village board engaging him to do the audit.

Wilfong said Skinner told him he had sent a letter to Tregresser requesting release of the files, "but I never saw a copy of the letter," Wilfong said.

"Recently, he asked me again to do the audit and I recall he said 'years,' so I assumed Tregresser had not done the 1977-78 fiscal year books. I told him I felt the same way, but would check with my attorney to determine if doing the audits would interfere with matters pertaining to my break with Tregresser."

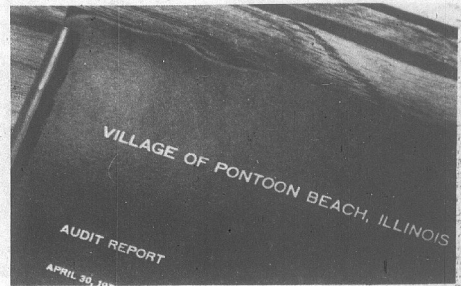

"My attorney advised me not to do it at this point," Wilfong said. He believed the conversation took place within the last three weeks, he said.

Skinner said Wilfong was "covering himself" and contended that Wilfong had always led him to believe he would do the audits, until his attorney advised him not to.

"In June or July, I asked him to get it completed. About two or three weeks ago, I talked to him and said, 'If there is a problem, let's settle it.' He said he never got the prior year's working papers from Tregresser," Skinner said. Al Cain of the Illinois State Comptroller's office in Chicago told the Press-Record that the village is one year delinquent in filing its audit report for the fiscal year which ended April 30, 1978, and the report for the fiscal year ending in 1979 will become past due the end of this month.

Audits

Cain said an auditor from that office contacted village officials by telephone Oct. 15 to ask why the reports have not been received and were told there had been some problems with the auditor leaving his firm.

Tom Dodegde, of the Springfield office of the comptroller, said that under normal policy, if the audit report is not received soon, the state will assign an auditor to audit the village's books and motor fuel tax accounts.

Skinner said he was moving quickly to try and find another accountant to audit the books when the board acted Tuesday night to hire Tregresser again. He said he had talked to Terry Bates with the Laventhol and Horwath CPA firm of St. Louis, and with Nathan Stein in Collinsville, asking both to give the board price proposals on doing the audits for the two fiscal years.

"I indicated to both firms that speed is of the essence. I expected their proposals by the end of the week and planned to ask Paul Bennett to call for a special meeting to select one.

The board, however, aware of the problem as the result of inquiries by the Press-Record and the comptroller's office, accepted a motion by Trustee Loren Madison that Tregresser do the audits immediately at a cost of $880.

Skinner added, "I talked with the comptroller's office (last) Tuesday of Wednesday and told them the problem. They said to submit the reports immediately upon completion," Skinner said.

One village resident told the Press-Record he questioned why Skinner should be allowed to select CPAs from which the board is to choose. The resident noted C.J. Schlosser & Co. always audited the village's books until Skinner took over the finance committee.

Most municipalities in the area use Schlosser, Oliver C. Schneider or R.C. Scheffel & Co., the resident asserted.

Countering the argument that he is an accountant and may be helping to select friends to audit the village's financial books, which were done by his wife, Skinner said the firms he recommends are reputable and known in this area.

Arrest estranged husband

Fritz Foschiatti, 50, of 2815 E. 25th St., was charged with impersonating a police officer and criminal damage to property after an incident at his estranged wife's apartment at 12:55 a.m. Wednesday.

Robert Wallace of the 3700 block of Johnson Road told police he was visiting Mrs. Margaret Foschiatti, 3219 Maryville Road, Apt. 1, when a man knocked on the door and said he was police officer and wanted to talk to Wallace, police were told.

They refused to answer the door and the man walked around to the rear of the apartment where he went to Wallace's parked auto and appeared to tamper with the tires, it was alleged.

He then returned to the apartment door, repeated that he was a police officer and wanted to talk to Wallace, police were told.

After several moments, he got in his vehicle and drove away at a high rate of speed, it was alleged.

Police stopped a vehicle

seconds later just three apartments away from Wallace's auto and arrested the driver, who allegedly was Foschiatti.

Wallace said all four tires on his car were slashed. They were almost new and cost $480, he said.

Two screwdrivers were found in Foschiatti's car, officers related. Foschiatti was taken before a judge at 3:50 p.m. Wednesday and his bond was set at $600. At 9 p.m. Wednesday, Associate Judge A.A. Matosian ordered him released on a notice to appear in court.

JAW IS BROKEN

Miss Lois Moore, 23, of 100 Briarhaven Drive, Apartment 104, was treated at St. Elizabeth Medical Center at 6:55 a.m. Tuesday after being involved in an auto accident in St. Louis. She said she had undergone X-rays at St. Louis City Hospital prior to going to St. Elizabeth. She suffered a broken jaw, multiple cuts to her face and mouth, a bump to her forehead and a cut to her lower lip. She was admitted.

Nov. 10 ball will help GC crippled children

By VALERIE EVENEDEN

The Granite City Society for Crippled Children has named Emylee Alford as honorary chairman of the 9th annual benefit ball.

The ball will take place Saturday, Nov. 10, at St. Mary's Engelbert Hall, 10th Street and Washington Avenue, Madison.

Tickets, costing $7.50 each, are available from members of the society, Granite City police officers or at Michel Jewelry and Gift Shop and Ernie's Standard Station.

A social hour will start the festivities at 6:30 p.m. Nov. 10, with dinner served at 7 and dancing beginning at 8 o'clock.

Music will be furnished by the "Rhythm Pipers Orchestra."

All proceeds from the ball will be used to help the crippled and handicapped youngsters, Mrs. Alford stressed.

The 1979 ball chairman has been associated with many civic and charitable organizations.

Mrs. Alford has provided volunteer leadership in such areas as the Boy Scouts of America, Downtown Restoration Society, United Way, March of Dimes, Heart Association, Cancer Crusade, Muscular Dystrophy and St. Elizabeth Medical Center Auxiliary.

She is a past president of the Chamber of Commerce Women's Division, Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club, and Trailriders Saddle Club.

Mrs. Alford is a member of the Tri-City Area YMCA board of directors, the Granite City Scholarship Foundation and the Belleville Area College Steering Group.

She also is a member of Women of the Moose Chapter 247, Eagles Auxiliary 1136, Delray Rebekah Lodge, Delmar Community Improvement Association and Community Homemakers Club.

Earlier this year, Mrs. Alford was presented the first "Volunteer Woman of the Year" award by the local Business and Professional Women's Club for her contributions to the community.

She is employed as assistant manager of Associates Financial Services, formerly Reliable Loan Company.

The Granite City Society for Crippled Children was formally organized in November 1971 and sponsored its first annual ball in January 1972.

A second ball was held in December of the same year. Most of the charter members had been actively engaged in raising funds for national organizations and felt the need for a local group to work for the benefit of crippled children in this area, Mrs. Lily Chaboude,

EMYLEE ALFORD, who has been named chairman of the 9th Annual Benefit Ball to aid the Granite City Society for Crippled Children. The gala affair will take place Saturday night, Nov. 10, at St. Mary's Engelbert Hall, Madison, starting with a social hour at 6:30, and dancing at 8 o'clock and ending at 11. Tickets are available.

Pete Hutchings dies at 67

Pete Hutchings, 67, became ill at his home at 2540 Hemlock Ave. a few hours earlier and died at 9 p.m. Monday at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Born in Prairie County, Ill., he resided here 20 years. He worked as a laborer through the Laborers Union for 40 years before retiring in 1973.

Mr. Hutchings was of the Baptist faith.

He is survived by his wife, Viola; two sons, James and Clarence "Buck" Hutchings, both of Granite City; a daughter, Mrs. John (Bonnie) Hampsey of DuQuoin; three brothers, Bill of Pinckneyville, Nelson of Nashville, Ill., and Donald Lazenby, Evelyn Leeper, Gertrude Luebben, Ron Luebben, A. E. Michel, Catherine Michel, Christ Pashoff, Louis Pashoff, Avery Schermer, Mayor Paul Schuler, Robert Thomas, Ronald J. Veizer and David Whitsell. Roger Higgins, plant manager of The Nestle Co., served as honorary chairman last year.

COX PROSECUTES
On May 18, 1973, Atty. Gen. Elliott L. Richardson chose Archibald Cox, solicitor general in the Kennedy and Johnson administrations, as the special prosecutor in the Watergate investigation.

Balloon descends in Tennessee

After a 10 and one-half-hour flight, the world's largest hot air balloon has landed.

Bob Esch of Edwardsville and Lenny Barad of St. Louis rode their balloon to a safe, upright landing in an open field near Lexington, Tenn., at 4 a.m. today.

Neither man was injured and the balloon was not damaged during the landing. Warmer temperatures than anticipated, which caused a slightly quicker consumption of fuel, forced the duo to land approximately 50 miles short of the hot air balloon distance record of 350 miles.

"If we would have had just two more fuel tanks, we would have passed the record easily," Esch commented after the landing.

The balloon began its journey at 5:30 Wednesday afternoon from the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. This was the second such attempt.

SKYLAB LAUNCHED
Skylab, a space laboratory, was launched in orbit around the Earth on May 14, 1973.

Housing meeting Friday in Venice

A meeting was called by Venice Mayor Tyrone Echols for 10 a.m. Friday in the Venice council chambers to discuss the city housing rehabilitation program.

"I would like to invite those council members who can attend the meeting and all members of the city community development committee to also attend this meeting."

"We will be reviewing the guideline of the program with representatives of Madison County Community Development program."

"Several applications are under review now and plans for approval will be made soon," Echols said.

Approximately $100,000 for housing rehabilitation that has not been used was made available over a year ago; another $55,000 became available in 1979, and an additional $85,000 is expected to become available July 1.

Improvement grants will be made up to $10,000 per home to the extent that money is available. After the homes and the improvements are decided on, the work will be advertised for bids, according to a representative of the local committee.

The City Council on Tuesday night approved a building permit for Mrs. Leona Voloski, who is planning to remodel the building at 214 Broadway, formerly occupied by an ambulance service.

Cost of the remodeling was not specified on the permit. The council discussed several hundred dollars owed by Venice residents on ambulance bills. City Attorney Harry Hartman was instructed to file suit if necessary for collection. Alderman Victor Valentine Sr. questioned purchasing procedures on cleaning materials for the city hall. He suggested determining the supplies needed and then seeking bids.

Currently the custodians are purchasing items such as floor polish one bottle at a time.

A discussion was held about the need, on Tuesdays, for a van to transport senior citizens to and from their weekly meeting.

Mayor Echols referred the matter to the Street and Alley committee to investigate various methods of helping the senior citizens.

Alderman Valentine asked if the police radar had been fixed and was informed it was not.

"I think the police are doing a good job, but we still have a lot of good citizens running stop signs and speeding. School is back in session and we all need to watch our driving habits," Valentine said.

RELIEF ACT
Congress adopted the Federal Emergency Act of May 12, 1933, which granted funds to the states for relief purposes.

Granite Chapter has birthday party

Granite Chapter 650, Order of Eastern Star, met with Worthy Matron Donna Kagy and Worthy Patron Joe Bilbrey presiding. Grand lecturers present were Betty McClintock, Mary Bilbrey, Hazel Wood and Arline Fox. Past Grand Martha of 1942 Bess Henley was introduced.

New Grand Chapter committee appointments for 1980 were announced.

Betty Gritz and Ed Lane were surprise guests in the East for the evening. They were presented a gift; a poem, "A Friend is a Gift of God," was read to them.

Mrs. Gritz was thanked for help she has given the worthy matron the past four years. Lane was congratulated on his election as master grand master of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Illinois.

There will be a reception for him at the Holiday Inn, Collinsville, on Oct. 27, at 6 p.m. Tickets are available from Earl French.

The worthy matron gave the 105th Grand Chapter Session annual report.

Dona Boyer and John Boyer, associate matron and patron, gave a report on the grand chapter. The worthy matron thanked her officers and protem officers for the evening. They were Rachel Larsen as chaplain, Mary Ellen Lewis as marshal, Bess Henley as Ruth and Hazel Wood as warder.

The worthy matron served as guest officer in Carlyle and Belleville.

On Oct. 26, Granite Chapter will hold a Halloween party and an initiation and also honor Granite Chapter officers at 7:30 p.m.

The dining room was decorated with tables representing the 12 months of the year. Each table had a birthday cake as a centerpiece. All members received favors appropriate to their birthday month.

The following were thanked for arranging the birthday tables: Mary French, Lois Ann Bilbrey, Wanda Bartling, Judy Staggs, Edna Brown, Vee Throne, Jo Ann Noe, Mary Ellen Lewis, Dona Boyer and Betty Kelso.

WOODCARVERS PLAN SHOW ON NOV. 4

The Belleville "Holschnitzers" (the German word for woodcarvers) will sponsor the 8th annual Midwestern Woodcarvers Show on Nov. 4 from 10:30 to 6:30 at the Belle Clair Exposition Hall, Belleville. About 150 members of the National Woodcarvers Association, from seven Midwestern states, will display and demonstrate their crafts as well as sell selected items. Admission to the show is 50 cents.

The Stylist Machine 534
If you'd bought a Singer® machine like this last year, it would have cost you $85 more than it does today. Because this year, when almost everyone else was busy raising prices, we were busy lowering them.

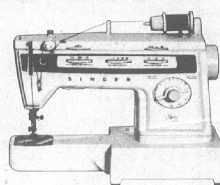

What we've done with this machine is particularly remarkable. First, we lowered its regular price to $239.95. And now, we're reducing it $40 more for the Singer Fall Sale. So, for a limited time, you can start sewing on this free-arm Stylist machine — with a built-in buttonholer and a front drop-in bobbin — for $85 less than you could last year. And today, with the cost of clothing skyrocketing, sewing makes more sense than ever. Because for less than half the cost of ready-made clothes, you can keep your family in style with Singer.

SAVE ON SINGER SEWING MACHINES

ROBERT SPENGLER

Spengler retires

Robert N. Spengler, 3666 Terrace Lane, Granite City, has retired following more than 12 years with the Prudential Insurance Co. At the time of his retirement, he was an agent in the company's Granite City district agency, located at the Nameoki Village Shopping Center.

District Manager J. F. Markey said that Spengler joined the company in East St. Louis in April 1967. He was transferred to the Granite City district in March 1971.

A graduate of Granite City Community High School, he continued his education in St. Louis, Mo., at Central Bible College. He is a World War II U.S. Army veteran.

For the past 21 years, Spengler has been treasurer of the Granite City Scholarship Foundation.

He is a member of the First Assembly of God Church and the Arlington Golf Club. In addition, he is a Masonic member in Granite City and is active in the Scottish Rite Bodies of Belleville and the Amana Shrine in East St. Louis.

Spengler and his wife, Marie, are moving to Sun City West in Arizona. The parents of two children, Mr. and Mrs. Spengler have one grandchild.

On-site hearings on zoning

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals will hold three on-site public hearings in Quad-City area townships Tuesday on zoning matters.

At 9 a.m. Tuesday, Oct. 30, the board will meet along Old Route 66, three-quarters of a mile south of Route 111, Everett E. Demster is requesting to rezone about 10 acres from agricultural to B-4 wholesale business zoning. The property is in Chouteau Township.

At 9:30 a.m., the board will meet at 160 Voight Place in Mitchell where Carol J. Duffield and Joyce Powell are requesting a special use permit to continue the placement of a double-wide mobile home for the duration of the ownership of a new purchaser. The property is in an R-4 single-family residential district of Chouteau Township.

The third local hearing will be at 10:05 a.m. Tuesday at 103 Allen St., Eagle Park Acres, where Jesse and Bernice Thomas are requesting a special use permit to place a double-wide mobile home in an R-4 single-family residential district of Venice Township.

Attends gifted children meet

Mrs. Vasil Eftimoff, 2800 Michigan, attended the 26th national convention of the National Association for gifted children held in Baltimore, Md. Oct. 18-21. Present were leaders in research and program implementation who conducted in-service workshops on identification of gifted, program development, and evaluation of programs.

Participants included Dr. Joe Renzulli, University of Connecticut; Dr. John Feldhusen, Purdue University; Dr. John Gowan, San Diego State University; Dr. Dorothy Sisk, University of South Florida; and Dr. Irving Sato, National Institute of Gifted and Talented.

somber grasp of a real problem and a painful grasp of the real solutions.

"He listened to detailed advice from experts and politicians and yet, incredibly, he came up with a plan that gave only a pittance of its resources to conservation, and of that pittance gave almost nothing to the industrial and commercial sectors," Butler said.

"Industry and commerce use over 50 percent of the energy in this country and they have the greatest potential for conservation. They must form the basis for the near and mid-term solutions to our energy problems."

"I believe it is possible for the business sectors to save 20 to 30 percent more of their energy if they are given the proper capital investment incentives," he told the audience.

"What is needed now to help awaken the slumbering, energy-wasteful companies — and help activate the best programs of the existing energy managers — is a clear direction in energy from the federal government, and a direction which includes capital incentives for energy-conserving projects," he told the group.

In his talk, Butler also warned the audience that:

1. Virtually all fossil fuel resources will be gone in 25 to 60 years.

2. Long before that time, fossil fuel supplies will be unable to support a steady growth economy in the western world.

3. Apart from the safety issue of nuclear fission, continued reliance on fission will eventually lead to United States dependence on another foreign fuel cartel — the uranium cartel — controlled by countries such as France and the Union of South Africa.

He said, "The United States has about one-quarter of the world's uranium, and if we were to significantly increase our fission nuclear power we would be forced to import another necessary fuel."

"That," he said, "would present the same old problems all over again — another foreign fuel cartel, and a finite resource with the end in sight."

Butler, editor of Energy User News in New York City, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Butler, 2801 Lynch Ave. He is married and has a son, Joshua Robert, who is five years old.

Butler was a 1963 graduate of Granite City High School and was a valedictorian.

He attended Northwestern University, where he graduated summa cum laude and received his bachelor's degree. He received his master's degree, with a major in writing, from the University of Iowa in 1969.

He then joined the U.S. Army Intelligence and spent one year in Vietnam in 1971.

After his service in the Army, he went to New York City and began his career in the newspaper business with Fairchild Productions, Inc.

He writes creatively every day and has had several short stories published in Redbook and Cosmopolitan magazines. His first novel will be published next year.

department equipment, court judgments and others.

"The financial situation of the city looks sound, but the council should keep in mind that the majority of tax monies have been collected and the city now is relying on its own daily receipts, which are lower than estimated, and on sales tax to finish the fiscal year.

"Certain large expenditures will be facing the city council in the latter part of the fiscal year."

"What I recommend to the mayor and city council is that any non-budget expenditures, including departmental expenditures, should be looked at before the council acts. Be sure it is a priority of the city."

"This also should include any pay raise or acquisition of new employees which were not originally budgeted or accounted for. Any revenues we can save or acquire would be beneficial to the present financial soundness," Nolan concluded.

Mistake

state officials had only 120 days in which to bring him to trial for the two alleged attempted murders and the related charges, officials said.

The state's attorney's office was asked several times in the subsequent months to check if Sidwell was ready for trial, including one occasion when a Press-Record reporter asked State's Attorney Nicholas G. Byron when the trial would be and Byron checked and reported Sidwell was still in the hospital.

Charges of attempted murder, burglary, resisting a police officer and possession of a controlled substance were dismissed in return for the plea and Rybak indicated he feels his office was fortunate to send Sidwell to prison for even that long.

Sidwell first was sought by Granite City officers after David K. Kissel, 25, of 1728 rear Cleveland Blvd. was shot in the jaw in an apartment at the front of that address Sept. 23, 1978.

The hollow-point bullet, fired at close range, destroyed much of Kissel's jaw and lower mouth and he spent a lengthy recuperation time in the hospital having his jaw restored.

On Nov. 2, 1978, while Sidwell was being sought by Granite City police, he allegedly stole the car of Merwin Doherty from his home in Collinsville and then entered the garage of Ruth Melly in Collinsville, took a license plate from her car and put it on the stolen car.

The following day, Nov. 3, Collinsville

Patrolmen Leonard Randant and Michael Italiano were investigating a stolen car report near the Doherty home when they saw a car drive past matching the description of Doherty's car.

Officers got in a patrol car and followed the auto to the end of the dead-end street where it turned around and came back toward the squad car.

Randant stopped the patrol car, partially blocking the street, and alleged the stolen car struck the squad car and then came toward Randant, who fired two shots at the driver, the shots passing through the windshield and the left front window of the auto.

Both shots struck the driver, who later was identified as Sidwell, according to authorities. A 43-year-old State Park woman who was a passenger in the car was not injured.

Since Sidwell was on parole from Menard after serving an armed robbery sentence, a judge ordered him returned there to recuperate in the medical facility while held on a parole violation.

Granite City police expressed displeasure with being unable to try Sidwell for attempted murder of Kissel. Capt. Bob Astorian took exception with quotes from Rybak that Rybak did not feel there was evidence to prosecute Kissel, and so accepted the reduced aggravated battery plea.

"The very same state's attorney's office found there was evidence in fact to kill when they issued the informational document charging Sidwell with attempted murder. Now they say there is no evidence. I think when you fire a hollow-point bullet at close range into someone's head, you intend to kill him," Astorian contended.

Rybak responded that the evidence did not clearly show who fired the gun and it would have been difficult to prove in court since Kissel did not see who shot him.

Dewey Van Dyke, administrative assistant to the state's attorney, said, "This happened to turn out unsatisfactorily, but we salvaged something from it, rather than facing a year and a half of appeals and still possibly losing it."

Van Dyke and Rybak blame the court order which sent Sidwell to the prison hospital. "It was implied in the order of the court that they should notify us when he was ready for trial, but it was not specified," Rybak said.

Van Dyke said the problem would not have occurred "if the court had just granted our original request for an immediate trial, even though he was injured. We wanted to try it right then, when he was first arrested, but the court denied our request."

When Sidwell becomes eligible for parole, a copy of the letter on his eligibility will be sent to the Granite City police for a reply.

"If they write us and ask us to seek a denial of the release, we will write the Parole Board and ask that he be held. That's standard procedure in any case we handle," Van Dyke said.

a formal accusation? Since you have been on this council, you have been full of inuendoes and charges and you have absolutely no right to do that."

Douglas stated, "Mayor, I have executive privilege (a legal term meaning public officials are immune from slander charges under some circumstances for statements made in public meetings.)

Schuler then told Douglas, "A half truth is worse than nothing at all. We don't need your kind of people on this council and you're going to be gone before your term is over."

"It's the truth, boy. It's the truth. You dummy," Schuler stated angrily.

Douglas responded by calling the mayor a "dummy," and saying, "Others are going to be gone too."

which drew a response from the mayor, "Not the way you're going to be gone."

Douglas was elected in 1977 to a four-year term as an alderman.

After the meeting, Mayor Schuler told the Press-Record he does not wish to comment further on possible plans to try and remove Douglas from his aldermanic position.

GC assessor office moving to City Hall

The Granite City Township Assessor's office will be moved Friday from the Granite City Township Building to the lower floor of the City Hall.

The assessor's staff will occupy quarters formerly housing the Granite City Police Department which have been extensively remodeled to accommodate the new operation.

While the move is taking according to Assessor Von Dee Cruse.

The present telephone number, 877-6150, will remain the same.

Office hours also are expected to remain the same at the new location.

The office is open from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, Cruse said.

place Friday, the office staff will continue to operate at the current location, ac-

Sewer rate near $10?

If the Madison County special sewer committee decides to use a flat monthly rate to bill those using the new sanitary sewers for treatment and maintenance, the rate will be close to $10 per month, Ed Juneau, engineer for the sewer project, explained at last night's meeting of the committee.

Several of the 15 residents present at the meeting expressed concern over public statements made by Chairman Louis Whitsell that a flat rate for treatment could range from $10 to $30 a month. Whitsell said he was only making a rough estimate when he told newsmen it could be $10, $20 or even $30 a month.

Juneau said preliminary studies indicate $10 a month for treatment and sewer maintenance would be a minimum, but he felt it will probably be close to that figure.

Some of those in the audience said they would prefer to be billed according to the amount of water they use, since they do not use much water.

Juneau indicated that a decision will have to be made soon, since he hopes to put the city's operations and maintenance manual before the Madison County Board in mid-November for approval. The manual will include fees for treatment and maintenance of the sewers.

The committee still has not reached agreement with Granite City officials on how much the townships will pay for use of the city's primary and secondary sewage treatment plants.

Several individual problems on easements, repairs to property, and other individual problems caused by the sewer construction were expressed by those present.

The committee also studied an architect's drawing of a possible building to serve as a maintenance facility for the district. The building is to be constructed in Pontoon Beach, on property the district purchased from the village east of Route 111.

Housing rehabilitation funding for Nameoki

Nameoki Township officials have received word that their $40,000 request for Madison County Community Development funding for housing rehabilitation has been approved.

Supervisor Harold Davis said at the township board's meeting Monday night that one of the township's requests had been denied, but that he was still happy

Nameoki was able to get any discretionary funds.

Nameoki had also requested development funding for a project that would have provided some needy senior citizens in the township with sewer tap-ons to their homes. Sanitary sewers are currently being installed.

In a related move at the meeting, the township board authorized contracts for three community development projects in the Eagle Park area south of Madison. The basic contracts had been approved by the board several meetings ago, but the contracts listed an incorrect amount.

Housing improvements in Eagle Park will be paid for with $24,500 of the money; $2,700 will be used to clear condemned houses, and $72,300 will pay for street, drainage and community center improvements.

In other action at this week's meeting, the board:

—Heard complaints from Charles Hamilton about high weeds on a vacant lot on Sken Street. Hamilton said he will remedy the problem if the township delays taking any action. Davis said the township does not have the legal authority to go on this lot and cut the weeds because the property has been condemned.

—Approved a motion by new Trustee Jim Counts to secure a plaque of appreciation for former Trustee Norman Hessler for his seven years of service to the township.

—Heard Supervisor Davis announce that a new rabies control officer has been provided through the Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA).

—Okayed transfer of $2,500 in the road and bridge fund from the material account to the gasoline and oil account. Also approved was a $300 transfer from the material to the telephone account.

—Eulogized former township Highway Commissioner Albert Bell, who died last week.

—Heard that current Highway Commissioner Frank Mehelic has advertised for bids on the sale of two 1963 model International trucks no longer used by the highway department. Bids are due Nov. 9 at 4 p.m.

THEFT FROM SAFE

Officials of the Clark Service Station at Nameoki Road and Washington Avenue discovered Monday that a $50 bill had been removed from a floor safe in the office during the night. Police were told two keys were necessary to get into the safe, one for the door and the other for the safe. The theft is under investigation.

New needlework project

A new needlework project offered by the Granite City Park District this season is "Counted Cross Stitch." "Needlework seems to be a popular item with the ladies, as many requests are made for something new each year," a park official said this week. Counted cross stitch is done with cotton embroidery floss on Aida cloth.

The Park District will provide the materials as well as graphed patterns and easy instructions for making four Christmas napkins. Samples of the napkins are on display at Wilson Park. Cost of the project is $4. Registration must be done at the Wilson Park office and the fee must be paid at that time, the official said.

Applying for credit

By JERI BOWER
County Adviser in Home Economics
Because potential creditors judge your ability to pay bills on the basis of your credit history, you may find your first application for credit a frustrating experience.
You will be asked questions about your finances and other creditors, even though you have no previous credit history from which to prove your reliability in repaying debts.

The following suggestions may help you develop a good credit history and provide future creditors with the proof they need of your financial reliability:
1. Open a checking account or a savings account or both.

Potential creditors check these accounts for evidence that you know how to manage money.
2. Apply for a store credit card. If one store turns you down, apply at another store.
Creditors may have different criteria for selecting credit customers.
3. Then, buy something on credit and pay the bill by its due date. In this way, you demonstrate your reliability and avoid any finance charges.

4. Ask a friend of relative with a good credit standing to co-sign an application with you for your first account.
Pay promptly. Remember, a co-signer is responsible for payment if you fail to make the payments.
If, despite a reliable payment record, you are turned down for credit, perhaps inaccurate records or misunderstandings have harmed your credit history.
For example, another person with a name identical to yours may not have handled credit very well. If a credit investigator mistakenly judges you on the basis of someone else's bad record, you need to and have the right to correct the mistake.

Once you develop a good credit history, protect it by paying bills when they are due and protect yourself from finance charges by paying the entire balance at once.
If this is not possible, pay off as quickly as you can in order to minimize finance charges.

nounced plans for opening the Damert Geriatric Center at the National Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows, 9500 W. Ill. Rt. 15, Belleville,
Illinois, on Monday, Oct. 29.
Based on the idea of "continuity of care," the 45-bed geriatric center will be available to the residents of the Apartment Community.
Services at the community will now include sheltered care, intermediate care, and skilled care.
Financial arrangements for the center were facilitated through a bequest from Mrs. Olga T. Damert and by contributions of former and present apartment residents and the Oblate fathers and brothers.

The center was designed by the architectural firm of Stauder, Fine, Builder, Inc.
S. M. Wilson & Company of contractor.

The Apartment Community at the Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows is owned and operated by the Reverend Oblate Fathers and will celebrate its 13th anniversary this November.
Presently, 200 residents occupy the 173 studio, efficiency, one bedroom, and two-bedroom apartments.

IRS seeks volunteers

Volunteers to help others with their tax returns are needed to staff VITA, (Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program), the Internal Revenue Service said this week.
Under the IRS-sponsored program, volunteers are recruited to provide free assistance to taxpayers unable to pay to have their tax returns prepared.

VITA volunteers, who do not have to meet any special educational requirements beyond that of a general education background, receive a training session in basic tax law and return preparation. Ira Loeb, director of the Springfield
IRS district, explained.

Volunteers assist taxpayers, often low-income, handicapped or elderly individuals, who require help and are especially in need of explanations of the special credits and deductions for which they may qualify.
VITA programs can be sponsored by civic or fraternal organizations, educational institutions,
churches and social groups.
Most VITA volunteers provide assistance in their own neighborhoods at schools, churches and libraries, and are conveniently located for taxpayers who cannot travel to an IRS office.

Organizations interested in a VITA program may call the IRS phone number listed

National Steel's Center expanding

A major expansion of the National Steel Service Center, Inc., operation in St. Louis—involving addition of more than $1 million worth of metals processing equipment—has been announced by Larry E. Smith, general manager.

"A major part of the capital expenditure is going into the purchase of a multi-headed slitting machine which will more than double our present slitting capacity," Smith reported.

"In addition, we are balancing inventory to serve totally our expanding customer base," he said. NSSC is a subsidiary of National Steel Corporation, which is the parent firm of Granite City Steel.

The $700,000 slitter will be automated from payout to recoil. It will be able to handle coil from .015 to .188 gage in widths up to 52 inches.

"We will be able to handle orders much quicker because of this machine's capabilities and, when necessary, we should be able to turn around an order for slit coil in less than 24 hours."

"Once it is operative (mid-November), nothing or no one will be able to match our capabilities in slitting in St. Louis," Smith enthused.

The new unit also will enable NSSC customers to buy larger coils which provide longer-run capacity. The machine has a looping pit and peeler, permitting tighter wound coils and helping entry of heavier gage steel into the slitter.

In August, the company began installing a new storage and packing facility at its 100,000 sq. ft. metals processing center located at 5410 Euclid Ave.

Smith explains that it will be a sheet rack system, utilizing a sideloader with a manual locator for stock retrieval. "This will help us maximize accuracy in order filling and shipping," he said.

The next phase of National's expansion calls for moving a 240-foot-long, cut-to-length line from its center in Granite City. This will take place after the new multi-headed slitter has been installed and is operational. "The consolidation of National's former service center in Granite City into the Euclid service center is a well-coordinated move and is being done in such a manner as to not disrupt customer services in any way during the transition period," Smith said.

Another addition to be made before the end of 1979 will be the installation of two 35,000-pound deck boards and two 15-ton-capacity overhead cranes.

National Steel Service Center already has more than a $3 million investment serving this area, including sophisticated leveling, edging and slitting machines, plus saws and shears to handle virtually any gage metal.

The St. Louis branch has a fleet of trucks covering an area from Columbia, Mo., to the Iowa border north and the Arkansas line on the south, and from Illinois to the Indiana border. Other NSSC branches in the Midwest are located in Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Kansas City, Milwaukee and Evanston.

NSSC's sales force ranks as one of the most experienced serving the St. Louis market with an average of 20 years' experience per man dealing with metal buying needs in this area.

Another announcement being made by NSSC is the decision to become the only metals center in St. Louis both warehousing and processing high- and low-carbon strip steel.

"Demand for this type of steel has been increasing dramatically in this area because of gage tolerances, tempering and finish requirements."

"We intend to become the most dynamic, flat-rolled-oriented service center in St. Louis from both a service and availability point of view," Smith continued.

In addition to strip steel, National also offers a wide range of steel and non-ferrous metals, including sheet, coil and plate steels, plus brass, copper, stainless and aluminum.

When National acquired the Hubbell chain in 1978, it had a plant and offices as well as a metals center in Granite City.

National Steel Service Center, Inc., headquartered at Parsippany, N.J., operates 36 metals service centers in the U.S., serving the Midwest, East, Southeast and Southwest.

Woman stabbed by intruder

Mrs. Karen Gray, 38, of 2137 Robert Ave., was treated and released at 4:38 a.m. today at St. Elizabeth Medical Center for two superficial stab wounds to her left arm.

At approximately 4 a.m. Mrs. Gray heard what sounded like someone trying to enter the house. She went to the door and surprised an intruder who stabbed her and then fled.

2 CHARGES FILED

Charles R. Call, 38, of 2132 Grand Ave., has been charged with criminal trespass to a motor vehicle and with a misdemeanor count of theft for allegedly taking the car of Joe Ray, 1106 Grand Ave., Madison, from 18th and State streets early Oct. 21. Police say they found Ray working under the hood of the car on the Park-N-Eat lot that evening and he was unable to show proof of ownership or a key to the vehicle.

Midge Costanza to speak in area

Margaret "Midge" Costanza, former assistant to the president for public liaison, will be the special guest speaker at a fundraiser on Saturday, Nov. 3, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Presented by the Equal Rights Amendment Center in Alton, the program will include a wine and cheese party and a tour of the Lewis mansion in the Fairmount Addition of Alton. It will feature Midge Costanza, a supporter of the Equal Rights Amendment who will speak several times during the afternoon so that everyone attending the "come and go" event can hear her talk and have an opportunity to chat with her. She has been involved in Democratic politics in New York state since 1959, serving as a City Council member, Democratic executive committee member, manager of Robert F. Kennedy's successful senatorial campaign in Monroe County, and member of the state and national democratic committees.

She was employed for 26 years as private secretary and administrative assistant to John J. Petrossi, a construction and real estate developer in Rochester, N.Y. Eva McDonald, president of the ERA Center board, said tickets at $10 per person are available at the EAR Center, 217 W. 3rd St., Alton (465-0280).

Collide on Pontoon Rd.

Stanley Jackson, 31, of 2025 St. Clair Ave., was injured when his station wagon and the auto of Charles Reynold Jr., 4216 East Lake Drive, collided at Pontoon Road and Vesel Avenue at 1:25 a.m. Wednesday. Reynolds was charged with failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident. Police alleged his car left 201 feet of skid marks before striking the station wagon.

Jackson was taken by a Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where he was treated for pain to his left side and back. A rib-belt was applied and he was released.

Pension, interest costs increase in '79 for company

Post corporation earned $639,000 or 35 cents per share in the third quarter, compared with $981,000 or 54 cents per share a year ago. Nine months earnings of the newspaper and broadcasting firm stand at $2,566,000 or $1.41 per share. In the first nine months of 1978, the totals were $2,850,000 or $1.58 per share. A spokesman cited three factors as primarily responsible for the company's trend in earnings: (1) higher interest costs, as interest on about half the firm's debt is tied to banks' prime rate; (2) higher pension fund costs, brought about by an increase in benefits voted by the directors in July and retroactive to the first of the year; and (3) a policy of improving product at several subsidiaries, particularly upgrading of the news department at the company's Rochester, N.Y., television station. The spokesman said the firm seems to be feeling recession pressures in some markets but not in others. As an example of the former, he cited Cleveland. In contrast, the firm's two largest earners, in Rochester, N.Y., and Appleton, Wis., are experiencing continued strong demand by advertisers. Also on the positive side, the spokesman cited "encouraging improvement" of operating results at Post Newspapers in suburban Milwaukee, a newspaper group launched by Post four years ago. Post owns and operates newspapers, broadcast stations and commercial printing plants in nine states. The corporation has completed acquisition of Community Journals, Inc. and Town & Country Publishers-Lithographers, Inc. Community Journals publishes four weekly newspapers in the northeastern suburbs of Cleveland. Town & Country has three publications in the southeastern suburban Cleveland area, and it also is a web press commercial printer with its plant in Bainbridge, Ohio.

Okay subdivision controls

A subdivision control ordinance which regulates the building of housing developments in Pontoon Beach was approved by the village board Tuesday night. The ordinance sets the size and thickness of streets, specifications for placement of homes on lots, lot sizes and other specifications that subdivision plats must meet before they are accepted for construction. In other business, the board approved its 1979-80 fiscal year road maintenance program, appropriating $10,000 in motor fuel tax funds for road work. Nameoki Township Highway Department workers will do the improvements, under contract with the village. The board gave approval to the Knights of Columbus to place roadblocks on Route 111 at Pontoon Road and Route 162 to raise funds for retarded children. The activity will be part of a statewide drive by the K of C. A 10-year agreement was signed with Illinois Power Co., under which the utility has exclusive rights to furnish electrical energy to the village in return for a 10 percent discount on all electricity used at the village hall. The board also amended Chapter 18 of the village code to make battery, assault, criminal damage to property and theft violations of village law. The move will enable the village to keep fine money from those found guilty of minor violations of those ordinances. Charges still can be filed under state law for the same offenses in cases where the police feel fines should be more stringent, but the county will get any fines collected from state violations.

THE UNITED WAY IS A GIFT WE GIVE EACH OTHER FOR BEING HUMAN.

Sometimes it's not easy being human. Medical libraries are filled with diseases of the body and mind. And, as if that weren't enough, we humans tend to create many of our own problems. Drugs. Child abuse. Family squabbles. The list goes on and on. Things we don't mean to do, but end up doing to each other and ourselves. It's all part of being human, and all part of why there's a United Way. The United Way is an organization devoted to making it easier to deal with the problems of being human. An organization dedicated to making humanity more humane. And since each of us is responsible for keeping the United Way successful, it's like a gift we give to each other for being human. A gift in the best of human traditions: sharing. Thanks to you.

Thanks to you, it works. For all of us. United Way

Anthony Leskosky, 66, dies

Anthony J. Leskosky, 66, of Collinsville, was declared dead upon arrival at Oliver C. Anderson Hospital, Maryville, where he was taken from home at 4:28 p.m. Monday.

Mr. Leskosky was born in Eureka, St. Louis and had resided in that area his entire life until moving to Collinsville eight years ago. He had been employed as manager of the accounting division at Agri-Chemical Corp., located at the National Stockyards, East St. Louis, where he was employed 30 years.

Mr. Leskosky was a member of the Mother of Perpetual Help Catholic Church and the Senior Citizens Organization, both in Maryville.

He also was a member of East St. Louis Knights of Columbus Council 592; Bishop A. R. Zurowetz Fourth Degree Assembly, Knights of Columbus; a 50-year member of St. Joseph Court 2242, Catholic Order of Foresters; and Croatian Fraternal Union Lodge 33.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Helen M. (Diette) Leskosky; one son, Richard J. Leskosky of Champaign; and two sisters, Mrs. Bernard (Helen) Kane of East St. Louis and Mrs. Steve (Emily) Anich of Las Vegas, Nev.

Funeral services were held this morning. Details are given in the obituary column.

Churchmen to hear Oberkfell

The fall meeting of the Churchmen's Fellowship Federation will be held Nov. 4 at Evangelical United Church of Christ, 2406 Poplar St., Highland, with the St. Louis Cardinals' Ken Oberkfell as the main speaker. He was born near Highland, twice received the most valuable player award in baseball at Collinsville High School, and attended Belleville Area College.

He now lives with his wife, Bonnie, in Troy, Ill. He batted .301 during the 1979 season and was the talk of the league with his defensive play at second base.

The meeting will be on Sunday, Nov. 4, beginning at 4:15 p.m. The dinner will be at 5:30 p.m. and adjournment is scheduled for 8:15 p.m.

The president of the Federation, Arkel Kunze of Belleville, announced that Homer Sathoff of Highland will be chairman for this event. Payment of reservations at $3.50 per person, including the meal, is to be made by Oct. 29 to Evangelical UCC, 2406 Poplar St., Highland 62249, attention: Homer Sathoff.

The Federation project is a scholarship fund for Eden Theological Seminary. The amount of the fund at this time is $23,476.

The Rev. David Harkins of the seminary will also address the group. The offering will be given to the scholarship fund.

Officers of the Federation in addition to Kunze include: Roy Groomert of Addicks, vice-president; Thies Lohndorf of Fairview Heights, secretary; and Malvin Frischkorn of Belleville, treasurer. Host pastor for the meeting is Dr. Kenneth G. Mesle.

State exhibit by Nancy Meadows

Nancy Meadows, Granite City, is among the 123 Illinois amateur artists whose works are being exhibited at the University of Illinois Town and Country Amateur Art Exhibition. This 24th annual show runs through noon this Saturday in the High Court Mall at Lincoln Square, Urbana.

Nancy Meadows' entry, "Heart of a Windmill" is a photography exhibit.

The 1979 Town and Country Art Program included 8,015 exhibits by 4,026 artists from 68 Illinois counties.

Seven hundred and sixty-eight award-winning works from the county shows were exhibited in 10 regional shows. Artists who won blue ribbons in the regional shows were invited to the state exhibition.

The show presents a variety of art forms including oils, watercolors, acrylics, woodcarving, needlework, ceramics, sculpture, photography and weaving. Judging the exhibit will be A. Doyle Moore, professor of art and design, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

The art program is sponsored by the College of Agriculture, the Cooperative Extension Service, the College of Fine and Applied Arts, the College of Applied Life Studies, and the Office of Continuing Education and Public Service.

The show is open to the public from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily.

Energy is topic of University Women

The monthly dinner meeting of the American Association of University Women (AAUW) was held Thursday in the Colonial Room of Bill Burns Cafeteria in Granite City.

Mrs. Robert Koziellek presided in the absence of President June Barton. Reports were given by Mrs. Mary Hiller and Mrs. Ruby Foster.

Dr. Tom Baldwin, professor of physics at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, brought with him an "Energy-Environment Simulator" device, which is an analog computer that traces the flow of energy from source to use.

Energy sources featured in Dr. Baldwin's speech were the non-renewable (coal, petroleum and natural gas) and the renewable kind (hydro-electric, nuclear and new technologies).

Energy from fossil fuels (coal and petroleum) can be made to flow into a "chemical pool" on the device, or into an "electrical pool."

The energy demands were divided by Dr. Baldwin into transportation, industrial, household and commercial areas.

According to Dr. Baldwin, political desires sometimes are needed to conserve the energy supply or increase the development of energy.

Each person in the U.S. consumes about 90 times the energy of his daily caloric food intake, which is about 3,000 calories, he estimated.

If there was zero population growth, Dr. Baldwin related, the personal energy demand would remain about constant. Otherwise, it will grow with time.

"We may produce faster while the supply lasts, but we cannot increase the total existing supply of oil," he said.

Solar energy will be helpful, but new technologies will be necessary, the speaker stated.

Pamphlets entitled "Citizens' Workshops on Energy" and "The Environmental Handbook" were distributed to the group by Dr. Baldwin.

Guests at the meeting included Lisa Grimm, Helen Krumsiek, Lucinda Huck, June Von Gruenigen, Waldo Frohardt and Edmund Firner.

The next meeting of the AAUW will be Nov. 15 at 6 p.m. at Bill Burns Cafeteria.

MONSANTO SALES, INCOME INCREASING

Monsanto Company last week reported that its consolidated net sales for the third quarter of 1979 were $1,487,000,000—an increase of 25 percent over sales of $1,187,000,000 for the third quarter of 1978.

Net income for the third quarter of 1979 was $98.9 million, up 111 percent over net income of $46.8 million for the third quarter of 1978.

Primary earnings per common share were $2.73 compared with $1.28 for the same period in 1978.

Papa-Skrabacz engagement

The engagement and forthcoming marriage of Lisa Marie Skrabacz and Francis William Papa are being announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Skrabacz, 733 Foster Drive, Belleville.

Parents of the prospective bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John W. Papa, 1807 Third St., Madison.

Miss Skrabacz is a flight attendant with Ozark Air Lines in St. Louis.

She is a 1974 graduate of St. Teresa Academy in East St. Louis and attended Belleville Area College.

Her fiancé, a Madison police officer, is a 1971 graduate of Assumption High School, East St. Louis. He also graduated in 1975 from St. Louis University and is a member of the Illinois Police Association, Madison City Organization and Madison Police Unit 110. The newly betrothed and their families are completing plans for a Feb. 23 wedding.

The ceremony will take place at St. Augustine of Canterbury Catholic Church in Belleville.

Attend wedding in Arkansas

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wade, 26 Del Rio Ave., and Mrs. Ivor Roberts, 2214 Amos Ave., were in Arkansas during the weekend to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Laurie Leonard.

Miss Leonard was married Oct. 20 to Carl Malloy in Fayetteville, Ark.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Mary Leonard of Fayetteville and the late Raymond Leonard. The Leonard family formerly resided in Granite City.

Chapter HT hears report

Chapter HT of the PEO Sisterhood met Monday at the home of Mrs. Harold Fischer.

A special guest was Mrs. Freda Holt of Chapter GM, Belleville, who presented a humorous account of her experiences at the PEO international convention held early this month in Anaheim, Calif.

Mrs. Holt said a total of 75 delegates attended from Illinois.

Mrs. I. C. Slate, Chapter HT president, was in charge of a business session.

Mrs. Ronald Pennell will serve as hostess at the Nov. 12 meeting, it was announced.

Eighteen members were present for Monday's program.

SUITS FILED
John Brandt Jr. has filed a $100,000 lawsuit against Fruin Colnon-Grant Construction Co., as the result of an accident in which he alleges he was injured. The suit contends Brandt was employed as an ironworker for a subcontractor building the new Jefferson Barracks Bridge Aug. 2 when a scaffold of sawhorses he was working on collapsed and he fell to the bottom of a pier, injuring a knee.

Plan ahead for easy entertaining

BEAUTIFUL BUFFET. Entertaining can be easy, author Marlene Sorsky believes, if you plan ahead. This buffet, featuring salmon mousse whimsically decorated in a fish shape and fluffy fruit dressing, a sweet-tart dip for fresh fruit, is an example of the kind of entertaining she advises. Most of the preparation can be done in advance.

By MARJORIE RICE
Successful entertaining is largely a matter of good organization.

And if you can make a list, then stick to getting the tasks done, you're well on the way to happy hosting.

"Once you have decided on a menu, go over each recipe and write down the steps of preparation and when each step should be done," writes Marlene Sorsky, who runs a cooking center in Tarzana, Calif., and who wrote "Cookery for Entertaining" (H.P. Books, Tucson, $4.95).

"At least two days before making a recipe, assemble the ingredients. This includes chopping and slicing ingredients that require it and refrigerating them in airtight containers."

Clear, colorful pictures (a trademark of the H.P. Books cookbook series) show you how to make chocolate-coated leaves, also a lovely garnish for dessert such as puddings and cakes.

Sorsky arranges the recipes in menus. For a lunch, she suggests the Salmon Mousse.

With the mousse, serve this cold Cucumber Sauce, which may be made a day or two ahead, or the Dill Sauce that follows. It may be refrigerated up to a week.

The mousse may be refrigerated up to 2 days, or frozen up to 2 weeks, making it a natural for the busy host.

SALMON MOUSSE
1/2 cup cold water
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1 cup mayonnaise
2 tbsps. lemon juice
3 tbsps. finely chopped onion
1 tsp. Tabasco sauce
1/2 tsp. paprika
1 tsp. salt (see note)
2 tbsps. capers, rinsed and chopped
2 cans (15.5 oz. each) salmon, drained, or 1 1/2 lbs. poached fresh salmon
1 cup heavy cream
Garnishes such as cucumber slices, celery slices, ripe olives and lemon wedges

Lightly oil a 6-cup mold and set it aside. Place the cold water in a large bowl. Sprinkle the gelatin over the water and let it stand 5 minutes to soften. Pour the boiling water over the softened gelatin and stir until the gelatin is dissolved. Stir in the mayonnaise, lemon juice, onion, Tabasco sauce, paprika, salt and capers.

Remove the skin and bones from the salmon and discard them. Place the salmon meat in a small bowl. Flake it well or chop it fine. Stir the salmon into the gelatin mixture.

Whip the cream until soft peaks form. Fold it into the salmon mixture and pour the mixture into the prepared mold. Cover the mold with plastic wrap and refrigerate until the mold is firm. At this point the mousse also may be frozen, in the mold, by wrapping it with plastic wrap and heavy foil. Serves eight to 10.

CUCUMBER SAUCE
1 very large or 2 medium cucumbers
1 cup sour cream
1 tsp. sweet pickle relish
1 tbsp. plus 1 tsp. white vinegar
1 tsp. sugar, optional

Peel the cucumbers and cut them in half. Remove and discard the seeds. Shred the cucumber using a hand grater or shredder blade of a food processor.

Place the shredded cucumber in a colander and let it stand 30 minutes. Squeeze out all the excess liquid. Place the cucumber in a small bowl and stir in the remaining ingredients until they are well blended. The sauce may be refrigerated up to 2 days. Makes one-and-one-half cups.

DILL SAUCE
1 cup sour cream
1 1/2 tbsps. white vinegar
1 1/2 tbsps. Dijon mustard
3 tbsps. brown sugar
2 to 3 tbsps. chopped fresh dill or 2 tbsps. dry dill

Mix all the ingredients in a small bowl. Refrigerate the sauce at least several hours to blend the flavors. Makes one-and-one-fourth cups.

FLUFFY FRUIT DRESSING
1/2 cup sugar
1 tbsp. flour
1 tsp. grated lemon zest
1/2 cup fresh lemon juice
1 egg, beaten
1 cup halved marshmallows (2 oz.)
1 cup sour cream

In a 1-quart saucepan, combine the sugar and flour. Stir in the lemon zest, juice and egg, mixing them until they are smooth. Add the marshmallows and cook, stirring over low heat until the mixture thickens slightly and the marshmallows melt (10 to 15 minutes). Cool the mixture slightly and stir in the sour cream. This may be refrigerated for several days. Use the sauce as a topping or dip for fresh fruit and berries. Makes about 2 cups.

Afternoon ceremony for Reid-Towell vows

Miss Dana Rene Jeanne Towell and David Brian Reid exchanged wedding vows in an afternoon ceremony at First United Methodist Church in Greenville.

The Rev. Francis Michels performed the double ring late September wedding ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Towell of Greenville. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Lee Reid, 2450 Waterman Ave.

Traditional wedding music was played by organist Linda Plant. Vocalist Mary Jane Hinch presented "If" and "You Light Up My Life."

The bride selected a white sheer organically gown featuring tiers of ruffles forming the neckline.

The floor length skirt of layers of sheer nylon organically was designed with a tiered ruffle bustle secured by a rose of matching material.

She wore a white picture hat adorned with lace pattern Venice rose and highlighted by hand beading and illusion veiling falling from a nest illusion at the crown.

The bride carried a nosegay bouquet of silk pastel lilies, daisies and baby breath in colors of white, blue and yellow.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Holles Room. Mrs. James Douglass of Decatur and Debbie Reid of Granite City served the wedding cake.

Jean Funderburk and Leslie Sue LeBeau also assisted with the reception.

Mrs. Everett Willmann, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Max Willmann, of the bride, presided at the gift table.

The bride is a 1978 graduate of Greenville High School and a 1979 graduate of Belleville Barber College.

She is also a black income tax graduate. She is employed as a hair stylist at Harvey's Barber and Style Shop in Greenville.

Her husband is a 1977 graduate of Granite City High School North and a 1978 graduate of Belleville Barber College.

He is employed as a stylist at Jake's Barber Shop in Troy.

Special guests at Wilson PTA

Second Baseman Ken Oberkell of the Baseball Cardinals and Madison County Sheriff Emil Toffant were the guests at the Wilson School PTA meeting Tuesday night.

The Cub Scouts of the school also were invited and heard the sheriff talk on Cub Scouting and Oberkell gave a talk on the baseball Cardinals.

Oberkell also stayed to sign numerous autographs after the meeting.

Mrs. Cherkoian leads Armenian Chapter

Varujan Cherkoian was elected president of the Rubena Chapter of the Armenian Relief Society at a meeting this week at St. Gregory Armenian Church hall.

Named to serve with Mrs. Cherkoian in 1979-80 were: Mary Bedian, secretary; Nellie Bogosian, treasurer; and Nevart Hagopian and Margaret Sisoian, advisers.

Final arrangements were made for the chapter's Christmas in October dinner, which was held Tuesday night.

Following the Divine Liturgy Sunday, the Ladies Guild of St. Gregory Armenian Church and the Armenian Relief Society jointly hosted a brunch for all parishioners in honor of Mrs. Helen Shrikian.

Mrs. Shrikian is leaving the parish to make her home on the West Coast.

Lock-dam replacement plan recalls the gigantic canal construction, could have similar 'boom era' impact here

It was the gold rush of '49 (1849) that stimulated population growth in California. The replacement of Lock and Dam 26 in 1979-80 could stimulate boom times in the Quad-City area and Madison County.

Whether the construction-related economic upsurge occurs will hinge directly on the status of litigation that seeks to block it.

Quad-Cityans are hopeful that the mammoth project can begin soon, and not just because of the prosperity that it can bring to this region. The new Mississippi River facilities are badly needed. And the federal government has followed appropriate steps in preparing for their construction, as U. S. Judge Charles R. Richey ruled Tuesday.

An appeal is planned. The suit against building a new lock and dam two miles downstream from the present Alton Locks and Dam 26 was filed by 21 railroad subsidiaries of the Sierra Club and the Izaak Walton League. Their concern involves possible impacts on wildlife habitats and the effect of barge competition on railroad shipping. The ten-year building task is estimated to cost about a half billion dollars. The Army Engineer Corps expects to award a $7.1 million contract this week to Bernard McMenamy Contractors of St. Charles for installation of rock and pilings at the new dam site to prevent erosion of the Illinois bank of the river during construction on the Missouri side.

Judge Richey ruled that the Corps ignored its own regulations but not the law in failing to hold a public hearing on the project after it was authorized by Congress. His 41-page opinion rejected allegations that the project study was improper and that its findings were arbitrary. He found that adequate weight was given to environmental values.

The present Alton locks are deteriorating and have become a river bottleneck. The biggest of the two is only 600 feet long, and the new lock is to be 1,200 feet, matching the longest of the two Granite City Locks 27.

The immensity of the undertaking may in some ways rival that of the Chain of Rocks Canal construction, which involved thousands of workers and the use of many big tools and machines.

If the new lock and dam approximate the work that went into the eight-mile canal a generation ago, the result could be a busy decade for tradesmen and other workers in a wide area.

In deciding whether to permit further delay, the federal courts ought to keep in mind the seemingly endless court merry-go-round that has already blocked the lock-dam replacement for most of the '70s decade.

Governor vs. university students

To the Editor:

For the past two or three years with James R. Thompson serving as governor of the state of Illinois, higher education students at all state universities have experienced the financial burden of tuition increases. Bill Houlihan, EIU student body president, said this fall, Houlihan said he "feels the cost of a basic college education has been marginally too much for the student." Every student has his limit, Houlihan added, and the recent increase in tuition set by the Illinois Board of Education has taken its toll by turning away many prospective students, he said.

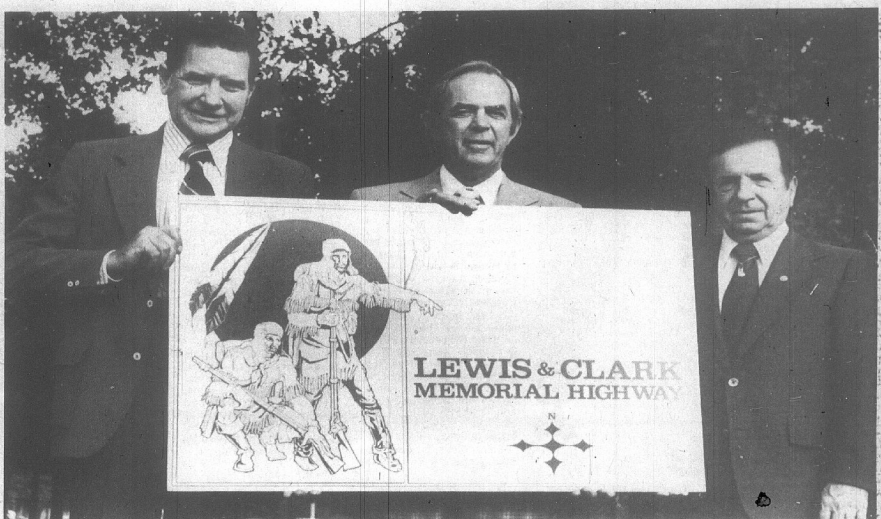

The IBHE should look for other alternatives rather than the easiest and quickest way of raising funds for state universities. Houlihan remarked, "Any student who wants to attend an institution of higher education in Illinois should be able to do so without undergoing a financial crisis," he said.

Students have also been hit severely by the recent action of the IBHE to reduce state subsidy of auxiliary enterprises. Student Senator Robert Glover said.

"There are several enterprises at Eastern such as the food services, residence halls, Lantz complex and University Union which will bring yet another financial burden to the students over the next five years. "EIU will have to replace over $700,000 by the year 1985," Glover said. And, of course, the students are being made to pay the majority of this almost unbelievable amount."

Houlihan added that Gov. Thompson has cut $2 million from a state program giving scholarships to students of academic honor. The program, which was originally allotted $4 million, was cut in half by the governor.

"Governor, we ask you, why did you cut the program and other higher education budgets in such large and unrealistic amounts?" Houlihan said.

Monroney, director of the Division of Highways for the Department of Transportation, Springfield; and Sen. Sam Vadalabene, Edwardsville. The two 56th District state legislators, during the last regular session of the General Assembly, successfully sponsored a resolution designating I-70 as the Lewis and Clark Memorial Highway, commemorating the historic expedition that began in Illinois near here. The Lewis and Clark expedition opened the vast territory of the Louisiana Purchase for the westward expansion of the United States.

Nameoki trustee and former candidate clash

By PETE STEHMAN

A feud that's been brewing in Nameoki Township for months came to a head Monday night as Trustee Lee Adams and other Town Board members blasted their constant adversary, Helen Hawkins.

Adams was so perturbed that he had a four-page statement read which sought to refute a string of allegations about township politics, and even went to the offensive to discredit some of Mrs. Hawkins' accomplishments.

Trustees have been at odds with her often. Her recent actions to try to win a seat on the board, and then to stop some township officials from attending a convention apparently set off the confrontation.

Mrs. Hawkins came to the meeting armed with a petition signed by 219 township residents, asking that not all trustees be allowed to attend a state township officials' convention. She said the $350 expense for each trustee was a waste of taxpayers' money.

During the 10-minute span in which the letter was read,

Mrs. Hawkins for the most part smiled. She even laughed several times. But she yelled from the audience when one point was read alleging that she had appeared before the trades council asking its support to have her appointed trustee to fill the board vacancy left by Norman Hessler. "That's a lie," she said.

"You're out of order, Mrs. Hawkins," Adams shouted back.

At the end of the statement, Mrs. Hawkins asked if she could have a copy and a chance to refute it. "As far as the copy goes, that would cost the taxpayers 3 1/2 cents. I would suggest you get it from the newspapers," Adams said.

Several people who spoke from the audience — in fact, everyone who spoke besides Mrs. Hawkins — said all trustees should attend the convention.

Adams said convention funds had been okayed in last year's budget in the revenue sharing account and that the protest was months too late.

Mrs. Hawkins said the money could have gone for any one of various other revenue requests that were more worthy.

Adams countered that at no time in the past had any reasonable revenue request been denied by the township board.

Highway Commissioner Frank Mehele also spoke in defense of the convention. "A lot of people don't realize what goes on up there," he said.

He said there are many different seminars offered at the county level revealed that "I did indeed win the election." She lost a position on the board because her challenge lawsuit had not been filed correctly, opponents said.

Mrs. Hawkins said Adams' statements in the letter were untrue. "On every statement you've made I'll prove you're lying," she said.

Supervisor Davis then took her to task about a statement she made to the Press-Record that township employees had been asked to attend Monday's meeting to back the township officials.

"That's a lie, Helen Hawkins," Davis yelled. "Why don't you prove it?"

Davis, Adams and Mrs. Hawkins continued to exchange barbs until the close of the meeting. "You've just become the laughing stock of Nameoki Township," Adams asserted.

Davis then called for adjournment.

Mrs. Cease dies at 81

Mrs. Mary Cease, 81, of Belleville, formerly of Venice, died at home at 8:15 a.m. today.

She was born and reared in Venice and had resided here for many years prior to moving to Belleville.

Her husband, Clarence W. Cease, died June 3, 1969.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. James F. (Helen) Galvin of Belleville and Mrs. George W. (Lucille) England of Tampa, Fla.; one brother, Clifford Canver of Venice; three grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services 8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 26, at Kasky Colonial Mortuary, Fairview Heights, where friends may call after 3 p.m. Friday. Burial Saturday at Sunset Hill Cemetery, Potosi, Mo.

BUNKO-ETTES MEET

The Bunko-ettes met, with Mrs. Angie Buehler of Granite City as hostess. Guests were Mrs. Carol Buehler, Mrs. Kathy Thompson and Mrs. Hilda Melton.

Prizes were won by Florida Batson, Dorothy Barnett, Mary Ebling, Julia Portell and the hostess. Others present were Leona Delaloye, Helen Lipchik, Rose Druhe and Ruth Partney.

RETURN FROM NORTH

Mr. and Mrs. William Crakovich and Mr. and Mrs. James Snovich have returned from LaCrosse, Wis., where they attend a wholesalers' meeting and banquet, and Minneapolis, Minn., where they attended a four-day national Tambo-ette extravaganza. During the latter event, Rudy Brnjac of the St. Louis area was inducted into the hall of fame.

FOOD SALES TAX

SPRINGFIELD — An overwhelming percentage of Illinois citizens favors the removal of the sales tax on food and drugs, according to a poll conducted last year by the University of Illinois.

The removal of the tax is favored by 76 percent of those questioned. Twenty percent are opposed, and the remaining 4 percent had no opinion.

Persons over age 65 are the strongest in favor, 83 percent. Persons with an income of less than $5,000 favor it 80 percent to 15 percent (5 percent undecided). Persons with an income over $40,000 favor it by a 67-29 percentage.

Although residents of west central Illinois show the least support for removing the tax, a majority of persons in all 102 counties expresses support for the plan.

Hundreds visit Mothers' Club Halloween fete

hundreds of children and parents passed through the Harris elementary school to attend the Mothers' Club 1979 Halloween carnival.

The entire school was trimmed in orange and black. Most of the workers were in costume as the carnival followed the Halloween theme in every detail.

Many new attractions were added to the annual carnival this year, including a pumpkin patch, mystery maze and puppet show.

Special guests were "Darth Vader" and "R2D2."

Daughter born to former resident

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hammond, St. Louis, parents of their first child, a daughter, Melissa Ann, born Oct. 6 at St. John's Mercy Hospital, St. Louis. She weighed five pounds, one ounce, at birth.

The mother is the former Sandy Kirksey, formerly of Granite City. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Kirksey of Granite City and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hammond of Lake St. Louis.

9,800 on campus; stress housing, academic quality

Total enrollment for the fall quarter in all university programs at Southern Illinois University of Edwardsville is expected to approximate 12,500, with on-campus enrollment for the quarter likely to reach a final count of about 9,800.

Registration for off-campus programs, which continues throughout the quarter because of workshops and specialized weekend courses, will be around 1,000.

Student enrollments in non-credit continuing education courses, which also accept registrations through the end of the quarter, are expected to approximate last year's enrollment of 1,750.

With student enrollment stabilizing, the university will be able to move ahead during the coming decade in both the scope and quality of its educational programs and public service activities, in the view of East Lazerson, acting president.

Lazerson said he is optimistic about efforts of the university to respond to problems that have adversely affected enrollments and programs in the past.

Solution of these problems, will enable the university to direct its emphasis toward "scholastic achievement, and providing a richer educational experience for all students, both on and off campus," he said.

The president again warned that continuation of shortages of public transportation in this region and of on-campus housing pose major barriers to the development of the university.

"The challenges of transportation and housing are crucial to our goals," Lazerson said. "If we can't provide additional housing and transportation, our efforts to provide educational opportunity to the region are going to be seriously compromised."

Lazerson pointed to a list of more than 450 persons waiting for openings in on-campus housing at the university's Tower Lake housing complex.

Such a waiting list for on-campus housing has existed since 1968, almost a year before the first on-campus housing was available, he said. At times, more than 650 persons have been on the waiting list.

He noted that landlords having rental property near the university experience the same type of demand for housing by SIUE students.

Commenting on the inauguration last week of a Bi-State bus line serving the campus from downtown St. Louis, Lazerson said, "This is just a first step in meeting the critical transportation needs of the university and the area."

Factors which have had impacts on enrollment include strengthening of progress standards for students receiving financial aid, compliance with Illinois Board of Higher Education guidelines regarding duplication of programs at the East St. Louis Center and the number of undergraduate institutional tuition scholarships granted, and the general decline in the total number of traditional college-age students.

Last year, approximately 800 students receiving financial aid did not return to the University after being notified they weren't making satisfactory academic progress. This fall, an additional 621 students have had financial aid withdrawn, or have been notified they are not eligible for aid because of failure to meet academic progress standards.

At the East St. Louis Center, no new students were accepted this fall because the Experiment in Higher Education program is being phased out to avoid duplication with State Community College.

The university is redirecting the Center to become a focal point for research in the area of remedial and developmental education programs; to offer third, fourth and fifth-year academic programs which complement the needs of East St. Louis; and to fulfill public service needs of the community through a variety of programs and services.

Institutional tuition scholarships granted by SIUE have been reduced by 70 percent since fall quarter 1975 in order to comply with Board of Higher Education guidelines on such scholarships.

In fall 1975, 823 such scholarships were granted to undergraduate students. Preliminary figures for fall 1979 show that about 248 tuition scholarships will be granted to undergraduate students.

BHE guidelines restrict the number of tuition scholarships to two percent of the undergraduate student enrollment at the university.

Lazerson announced implementation of a major planning project to determine the full impact of all elements affecting university enrollments, programs, services and budgets.

The study will, among other things, "evaluate variables influencing the university's enrollment, such as transportation systems, housing availability and development, and energy costs and availability."

Looking to the future, Lazerson observed that the university will vigorously pursue opportunities to improve the quality of its undergraduate education, to expand continuing and adult education programs, and to implement additional public service activities.

Other efforts to be undertaken include increasing the level of applied research, increasing support to basic research vital to university programming, and improving cooperative relationships with community colleges, colleges and universities in the region and Illinois.

SIUE, Lazerson said, "will aggressively seek out all potential students who genuinely desire a strong university-level education."

"Our students should have the pride and determination to push themselves — and the university — to the highest level of academic excellence."

"It is my firm hope and deliberate intention that all changes initiated will be changes for the better, particularly in terms of academic quality and achievements of the university."

HOUSE RANSACKED

The home of Andrew C. Arney, 2141 Roberts St., was found by the owner to have been ransacked and $204 in cash stolen between 12:30 p.m. and 4:25 p.m. Saturday.

Children's costume party at GC library

The Children's Department of the Granite City Public Library will hold its annual Halloween costume party Saturday, Oct. 27, at 2 p.m. in Wesley Hall, Niedringhaus United Methodist Church, 20th Street and Delmar Avenue.

"The Ghost and Mr. Chicken," a feature-length film starring Don Knotts, will be shown at this year's party.

At the party, a jack-o-lantern full of surprises will be given away.

Children are being encouraged to wear Halloween costumes, but costumes are not required. The program will last approximately two hours.

Weekly programs given by the Children's Department this fall are: Tuesday, 7 p.m., preschool and primary story hour (branch library); Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, 10 a.m., preschool story hour (main library); Saturday, 2 p.m., primary and intermediate movies and crafts (main library).

All Children's Department programs are free and are open to residents of Granite City or other library patrons. Deanne Holshouser is children's librarian assistant.

HOUSE BURGLARY

Sometime between 9 p.m. Friday and late Saturday the home of Mrs. Derris Mosby, 1042 Douglas St., Venice, was burglarized. Items taken included a 12 inch color television, a Pioneer stereo unit and a General Electric clock radio.

Free Halloween party for Chouteau children

A free Halloween party for the children of Chouteau Township will be held at the township hall Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m.

Special guest for the event will be Ronald McDonald of McDonald's Restaurant chain and his "Miles of Smiles" magic show.

Children are being encouraged to wear costumes and there will be judging in six age groups for the prettiest, most original and scariest costumes. The judging will take place between 2 and 3 p.m. Refreshments and hot dogs will be served at 4 p.m.

The event is being "geared" for children 12 and under from the Mitchell, Johnson and South Roxana elementary schools. Poster contests are under way in those schools and prizes for the best posters will be awarded at the party. Children over 12 will be welcomed, although the day's activities are not designed for older children, a spokesman said.

Features include a witch's cauldron, a fortune teller, a haunted room, treats, and other surprises. The master-of-ceremonies will be Bill St. Peters.

The township hall is located on North Thorgate Drive, behind the Midwest Motel, and can be reached by taking Interstate 270 to Route 3 north (Old Alton Road), and then turning left on the north access road of the Interstate. Mitchell residents may prefer to take Maryville Road to Old Alton Road and turn north to the access road at the sign for the Midwest Motel.

Quad-City Halloween attractions are opening

With Halloween rapidly approaching, Quad-City area residents, both young and old, will have the opportunity to visit several seasonal attractions.

Opening tonight at 7 will be the area's original Halloween attraction, Explorer Post 10-4's Haunted Castle, beginning its eighth season. It is located just off Third Street and Madison Avenue in Madison.

The "castle" will be open every evening from 7 until 9 starting today and continuing through Halloween, Wednesday, Oct. 31.

In addition to the usual Dracula Jr., Frankenstein, Wolfman and other creatures, the first 500 persons visiting the haunted castle will receive a trick or treat bag and souvenir ballpoint pen.

Explorer Post 10-33 will have a "haunted house" this year at 2740 Madison Ave., Friday through Halloween night from 7 to 9.

This is the fourth year Explorer Post 10-33 has operated a Halloween attraction.

Post 10-33 will also feature such creations as Count Dracula, Wolfman, Wildman, witches and other assorted creatures.

The Granite City Jaycees are promising to "scare the daylights out of you" as they again will have a "haunted house" at 1855 Poplar St.

The Jaycees will open Friday at 7 p.m. and continue nightly through Oct. 31.

Something new and different in the way of Halloween attractions is being offered by Explorer Post 102—a "haunted hayride."

The rides will be held tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday from dark until 11 p.m.

The hayride through some eerie trails will last about 35 to 45 minutes and begin at the corner of Arlington Drive and Kelley Drive, in Arlington Heights.

All four attractions are charging $1 for persons 12 years of age and older, and 50 cents for those under 12.

KICK DOWN DOOR

A burglar kicked in the basement door at the home of Phil Metzger, 1704 Cleveland Blvd., and stole an air conditioner, he reported Monday.

Venice man, 23, faces 2 charges

A man charged with theft after allegedly taking an auto light bulb from the K-Mart store, was booked on a second charge when taken to police headquarters at 6:55 p.m. Monday.

Benjamin Waggoner, 23, of 1214 Douglas St., Venice, initially was charged with theft on a complaint signed by a store security officer. While he was being booked at the Granite City police station, officers alleged finding four marijuana cigarettes in a package in his possession.

Waggoner was then charged with possession of cannabis. He was released at 11:05 p.m. Monday upon paying a $70 cash bond.

Plan renovations at the state fair

(Ill. Agriculture Department)
Q. Now that the Illinois State Fair Agency is the administrative responsibility of the Department of Agriculture, what is the future of the state fair at Springfield?

A. We think the Illinois State Fair has a bright future with the Department of Agriculture and we are excited about assuming our new responsibility and role. At this early stage, our highest priority, from a business standpoint, is an orderly integration of the old State Fair Agency into the Department of Agriculture as one of our operating divisions. In fact, we are incorporating the accounting personnel and the responsibility for the buildings and grounds now.

A general clean-up of the grounds will be the first outward sign of change. We want to polish the state fair until it's something we can all be proud of. In our long-range plan we will include: renovation of some of the historic buildings on the fairgrounds, taking down some buildings that are no longer functional, and perhaps adding some new structures that would meet demands that have developed in recent years. One of our objectives is to provide for greater utilization of the buildings and grounds throughout the year. We will work to determine what new activities we can support, and will promote better use of our existing facilities. During the fair, we would like to see greater participation by the farm organizations and the commodity groups. We have had good participation in the past, but it can be expanded to improve agricultural and consumer aspects of the fair. We are in the business of producing food and fiber for the public and consumers need to understand this system from start to finish. By means of the fair, we can provide them with the opportunity to relate to and understand this process. However, we do not intend to overemphasize agriculture at the expense of the other attractions. In order for the fair to offer something to everyone, we will strengthen every aspect of it with a balanced, long-term program. The Illinois State Fair will have a lot to offer to all. The Department of Agriculture is a strong agency. We have constituents who will support us in our efforts to upgrade and rebuild the reputation of the fair. We will give it some of the strength and stability it needs and deserves.

We encourage anyone with concern and interest in the fair's future to contact us with any ideas or suggestions regarding its operation. For these and other questions or comments write: Jack Block on Agriculture, State Fairgrounds - Jr. Livestock Building, Springfield 62706.

Mixed outlook on orders for steel

National Steel Corporation on Tuesday reported slightly lower third-quarter earnings for 1979 as compared to last year's similar quarter, but near-record nine month earnings this year as compared to the first nine months of 1978.

Earnings for the third quarter were $39.2 million, or $2.03 per share, versus $40.4 million, or $2.10 per share, during the third quarter of 1978.

Nine month earnings were $105.2 million, or $5.45 per share, versus $74.3 million, or $3.87 per share, in the 1978 comparable period.

Third-quarter sales and other income totaled $1.1 billion, compared with $957.7 million in the 1978 period.

Nine month sales and other income totaled $3.3 billion, versus $2.7 billion for the comparable 1978 period.

"Despite new highs in prices and other income, our profitability continues to be severely impacted by rising costs and operating expenses —which jumped 18.7 percent for this year's third quarter over last year's and by 22.2 percent for the nine month period of 1979 versus the comparable 1978 period,"

Stinson said. National Steel Chairman George A. Stinson.

"The inflation-related impact on our profitability is due primarily to increased costs we continue to experience for energy, for materials and services, and for labor."

"One important element that contributed heavily to increased costs during the third quarter was the implementation in August of payroll benefits under terms of the third and final year of our current agreement with the United Steelworkers union."

"Accordingly, we are diligently continuing to make every effort to cut costs under broad-ranging corporate programs,"

Stinson said. The National Steel chairman said that order booking rates bottomed out in early August for the corporation. Bookings, depending upon various markets, are now holding steadily or are trending upward.

Tin mill products, for instance, are virtually sold out through the end of the year, he said. This is so because sales of sanitary food packs have been good this year, especially for corn, tomatoes, peaches and fruit cocktail.

Stinson said that other "good" current markets for National Steel include agricultural machinery, railroad equipment, oil and gas markets, construction, tubing, motor lamination, and pre-engineered buildings.

"Inflation and the higher cost of borrowing money are actually helping us in the pre-engineered building market, since producers of these structures are making greater penetration into the 'Fortune 500' companies in view of the high cost of more conventional buildings."

He added that the appliance market appears mixed, but is "holding up well."

Also mixed is machinery equipment. Markets showing weakness for flat-rolled steel, he said, include automotive and service centers.

"The market with the most uncertainty associated with it is automotive," Stinson related. "Fortunately, the automakers we normally supply have their steel inventories fairly well in line. Orders have softened somewhat, but remain in line with our projections."

"Customer acceptance of 1980 cars, now being introduced, will have an important bearing on order patterns for the balance of the year."

Primary steel production in the third 1979 quarter totaled 2.7 million tons, compared to 2.8 million tons for the third quarter of 1978.

Shipments totaled 2.1 million tons versus 2.0 million tons for the comparable third-quarter period last year.

For the first three quarters of 1979, primary steel production totaled 8.5 million tons, compared to 7.7 million tons for the same period last year, while shipments totaled 7.5 million tons for the nine-month period, compared to 6.1 million tons for last year's first nine months.

Last week, National Steel announced plans for a multi-million-dollar furnace improvement program for its Great Lakes Steel Division at Ecorse (Detroit), Mich.

Two of the plant's 300-ton-capacity top-blown basic oxygen furnaces will be converted for top-and-bottom blowing to permit the option of using more scrap steel when scrap prices are more advantageous, rather than relying solely on using a greater percentage of blast furnace-produced hot metal.

The corporation's proposed acquisition of United Financial Corp. of California also moved another step closer to completion with recent approval of its application by the California Department of Savings and Loan.

Only one additional regulatory body, the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corp., now needs to approve the acquisition plan.

Venice school group views career movie

Mary S. Harper, vocational coordinator at Venice High School, reported members of the Venice Vocational Advisory Council viewed a special film at their initial meeting of the 1979-80 school year.

The movie, "Getting It Together," is sponsored by Illinois Bell Telephone Co. and targeted toward business, professional, labor and community groups.

Its objective is to inform such groups of the purposes of career education, what it is and why people should become involved, Miss Harper said.

Consultants at the meeting were William Badger of Illinois Power Co., Jean Svevia of Shasta Beverage Co., and Al Weider of Consolidated Aluminum Corp. and Mrs. Weider.

Parents attending were Joyce Odum, Caroline Malherke, Phillip White, Wilbert Glasper, a member of the Venice Board of Education, and Beatrice Wigfall, vocational council chairman.

Students present were Lisa Harmon, Mellany Wigfall, Pauline Walker, Gwendolyn Rhonda Riggs, Sabrina White, Jason Merchant, Ken Wise and Don Gardner.

Others at the meeting were Venice Supt. of Schools Robert Vickers; John Rush, Venice High School principal; Albee Cross, Title VII director; and faculty members Johnnie Morris, Omar Butts, Al Schaefer, Diane Ratliff and Miss Harper.

George Andersen, 86, dies

George W. Andersen, 86, of 2009 Oregon Ave., died at 1:40 p.m. Tuesday at The Colonades, where he had been a patient the past month.

He was a native of Bangor, Maine, and had resided in Granite City for the last 50 years. He lived previously for some years in Tennessee Ridge, Tenn.

Mr. Andersen retired in 1962 as a guard at the former Union Starch and Refining Co. He had worked at the local plant 31 years.

He was of the Protestant faith.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Myrtle (Travis) Andersen; two daughters, Mrs. Roy (Marie) Edgeth of the Alton and Miss Verline Andersen of Granite City; a son, Vernon E. Andersen of East Alton; four grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Funeral services are taking place at 1 p.m. today. Details are given in the obituary column.

Sports

GRANITE CITY (III.) PRESS-RECORD, Thursday, Oct. 25, 1979—27

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — The fledgling Wood River High School soccer program got a good lesson here Tuesday. Oh, it probably doesn't like to think about it now, but in the long run, the Oilers will look back on Tuesday and learn something.

You see, the Wood River team was "thrown into the lions' den" as it were, in the first round of the Illinois High School Association Sub-sectional playoffs. It had to play at Granite City North. The outcome was predictable. North's Steelers scored a goal within the first minute of play and never had problems with the Oilers, coasting to an easy 10-0 win.

The victory for North means that it will host East St. Louis Assumption today (Thursday) at 4 p.m. in the second round of the tournament. Assumption downed St. Paul-Highland Tuesday 4-1.

Wood River is in the early stages of building a soccer program — and it showed. The young Oilers were able to get the ball over the midfield stripe three times the entire game. In fact, an unofficial count showed that the most touches Wood River was able to get in a row was four — once.

Can a game against a team like Wood River be of any help to a powerhouse like North, which is trying to prepare for battles later in the tournament with much tougher teams?

"Yes and no," said North coach Bob Kehoe. "I guess the only positive thing that can come out of a game like this is that it loosened our guys up. They were able to have fun."

North's Dan Fitzgerald wasted no time getting things started in the scoring column. He took a centering pass from teammate Mark Jones just 37 seconds into the game and slammed it into the netting.

"The early part of the game, we were able to work on our passing and other aspects of team-work. But after a while, even that starts to break down," said Kehoe.

For that reason, and in an effort to get a look at many substitutes, Kehoe gave his varsity a rest in the third quarter. Up until that point, however, the Oilers got a taste (probably their first) of big-time high school soccer the way it's played in Illinois.

The Steelers gave a clinic on how to run scoring patterns. They were successful on most of them.

Very few surprises in sub-sectionals

O'FALLON — There were few shockers around the area Tuesday in the first round of the IHSA soccer sub-sectionals. Perhaps the only mild surprise was the margin by which Collinsville defeated O'Fallon. The Kahoks had a rough time with the Panthers, who upset them last season in the playoffs. Collinsville won 1-0.

In other scores involving teams in the Granite North sub-sectional, Assumption beat St. Paul-Highland 4-1 and Edwardsville beat Lebanon 4-3 on overtime penalty kicks. North beat Wood River 10-0.

In the South sub-sectional, Belleville East beat Madison 7-0, Belleville westbeat Cahokia 2-1 and Althoff downed Cahokia 4-3.

In the Quincy sub-sectional, Quincy Sr. beat Quincy Notre Dame 2-1 in overtime. Other scores were: Peoria Richwoods 5, Manual 1; Peoria Bergan 5, Spaulding 1 and Central 2, Woodruff 0.

In the Jacksonville sub-sectional, Springfield Southeast beat Chatham Glenwood 5-2 and Springfield Senior beat Lanphier 7-0.

Action will continue today in all four sub-sectionals, with the championship game to be played Saturday. The four winners will advance to the Granite North Sectional next week.

Local doubles at state

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS — The Granite City South High School girls' tennis doubles teams of Laura Gabriel-Susan Squires and Susan Bell-Wendy Kelly are participating today in the Illinois State High School finals at various sites around the Arlington Heights area.

Gabriel and Squires advanced by beating Bell and Kelly in the final of the Wood River District Saturday. The top two finishers in both singles and doubles advance to state play.

Hinsdale (Central), seeking its fourth straight crown, advanced one singles player and a pair of doubles tandems to the state final. The Red Devils Susan Whitney captured the district singles title, while the doubles tandems of juniors Vicki Shields and Anne Hutchins and senior Mindy Cushing and sophomore Caroline Barclay placed 1-2, respectively, in the district.

Whitney, third place finisher in singles last year as a junior, will be ranked one of the top-seeded competitors in singles, but the spotlight will shine on the Stevenson sister combination of senior Susy and freshman Andrea Jaeger. Susy will be trying to become the first player ever to win four straight singles titles. Her younger sister defaulted to her in the title match of the Crystal Lake (Central) District.

Joining the Jaeger sisters is the Stevenson doubles team of senior Shari Johnson and freshman Karen Heiser, who finished second in the district. The Hinsdale (Central) doubles team of Shields and Hutchins placed second last year to the sister team of Anna and Avra Jain of Champaign (Central).

Trojans fall to Lancers 7-0

BELLEVILLE — The Madison Trojan soccer team hopes of getting their first match ever with state champion Granite City South were dashed here Tuesday when Belleville East's Lancers handed them a 7-0 sub-sectional defeat.

East's Mike Comley scored four of his team's goals. The victory for Belleville means that the Lancers will face Granite South tonight (Thursday) at 7 in the South Sports Complex. South downed Waterloo Tuesday 9-0 (see related story).

Comley scored his first two goals in the first quarter unassisted. Mike Barbochem tallied an unassisted goal in the second period.

East finally blew things open in the third quarter when Comley had one and Scott Cedarleaf had two goals. Comley's final goal came in the fourth quarter.

The Trojans were out-shot by East 26-7. East had six corner kicks to Madison's one. East had 23 fouls, Madison 12. Madison had five goalie saves to East's three.

Surprise! Flyers still 1st; High and moves to top spot

GRANITE CITY — Surprise! The team that is ranked third in the state of Illinois among Class 5A schools and has allowed only one touchdown all season is still considered the top large school in the Metro-East area, according to this week's Press-Record poll of area coaches.

Of course, the team referred to is East St. Louis Senior High. The Flyers received all five first place votes in the large school poll. And, as has been the case all season, the battle for the next three spots is some by Belleville schools. This week, East edged West for the second spot, followed by Althoff, which all but clinched a berth in the Class 4A playoffs by whipping Granite City North 42-0 last week in a battle for first place in the Gateway East Conference.

| 9. Edwardsville                      | 12 |      |
| 10. Collinsville                     | 6  |      |

To show just how good East St. Louis is, consider this: The Flyers easily defeated both East and West by scores of 37-8 and 38-0 respectively.

In fifth spot are the Tigers of East St. Louis Lincoln followed by Granite City North, which edged crownstown school Granite South by one point.

In eighth position is pesky Alton. The Redbirds did everything to Belleville East Friday night except beat them, dropping a thrilling 31-29 decision. This week, North Yates South for the second time this season and Alton plays West for the second time, earlier this season. West downed the Redbirds 22-14. Next week, Alton plays at East.

In this week's small school poll, Highland has wrestled soul possession to first place away from Mascoutah, despite the fact that Mascoutah is ranked third in the state in Class 3A rankings, while Highland is ninth. In fact, the Mascoutah Indians aren't even second this week. Class 2A powerhouse Assumption is three points ahead of third place Mascoutah. In fourth is 3A school Dupo followed by 3A Roxana.

Outclassed Bulldogs meet their Waterloo at hands of Warriors

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City South bench was in a jovial mood about 8:30 here Tuesday night. All-star David Fernandez shouted to teammates from his spot on the sidelines. Randy Deltoussie joked with former South goalie Marc Mann. With their team way ahead, it was a familiar scene.

South opened defense of its 1978 state prep soccer championship with an easy 9-0 victory over the Waterloo Bulldogs in the first round of the South sub-sectional at the Warriors' home field — "The Gauntlet." South will face Belleville East (7-0 winners over Madison Tuesday) in the semifinals in the tournament today at 7 p.m.

The issue was never in question. South took a 2-0 lead after the first quarter on two goals by Fernandez and waltzed away with the win.

The second goal was a carbon copy of the first. Fernandez ripped a sinking shot beyond the outstretched arms of the Waterloo goalie from about 15 feet out. It went in inches below the crossbar.

"He (Fernandez) gets better every game," said South coach Gene Baker. "Having him back in the lineup is great."

Fernandez missed nearly half the season with a knee injury. He and teammates

Phil Beljanski and David James (all starters) were out with various sundry injuries a good part of the season. Beljanski returned to the lineup first, about a month ago. Fernandez returned Oct. 4 against Granite City North. James, who broke a thumb during summer play, was the last to return. But it was his return that finally solidified the South attack.

James, still sporting an elastic bandage on his hand, scored South's third goal at the 30:25 mark of the second quarter.

The South onslaught at the Waterloo goal was almost relentless. The Warriors, who were having trouble getting off shots. But we're stressing shooting now. We want everybody to get into the act, because if you don't shoot the ball, you can't score."

The barrage continued in the third quarter, even though Baker was running substitutes in and out of the lineup. Jack Burnett scored on a penalty kick. Fernandez got his third goal of the game. James got his second. Then it was Kelly Mann's turn.

Mann, in as a substitute forward, lofted what appeared to be a high centering pass in front of the Waterloo goal. But the "pass" kept right on going and landed untouched in the far corner of the netting. Mann almost had his second goal minutes later when he boomed a shot off the crossbar that left the goal shaking.

Fourth quarter goals were scored by Tim Dix and David Paz. Baker praised Paz.

"David had a very good night," he said. "He played a smart, steady game. He's starting to play well."

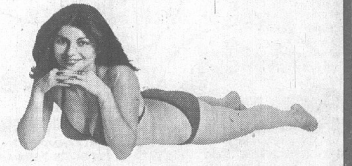

South will play Belleville East tonight at 7 against Belleville Eastm, which defeated Madison 6-0 in another first round game. Earlier this season, South beat East 5-0.

Steelers, Warriors are ready for round two

By KEVIN ALLEN
of the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — Before the 1979 football season began, a rundown of the Gateway East Conference schedule showed the ingredients for a potentially wild final home game for Granite City South.

Remember seeing that Granite City North and Granite City South would meet for the second time in three weeks?

Remember thinking how much that game might possibly mean?

Well also remember that Belleville Althoff is in the Gateway, and remember what happened to both North and South when they went calling in Belleville.

The Crusaders of Althoff pretty much eliminated South from contention for the Gateway title when they beat the Warriors 28-6 on the fourth week of the season.

Even though first place isn't at stake, it's still North-South

Then last week the Crusaders turned what North's Steelers hoped would be the exit ramp for the road to the Illinois state football playoffs into a dead end with a 42-0 rout.

So, tomorrow's big firecracker of a final game in town has been defused somewhat, but not entirely.

After all, it's still North and South out there. This will be the final game of the 1979 season for South and the next to last for North. And even if this game has taken on a sort of anti-climatic flavor, at least the home town rivalry will prevent it from being just another season wrap-up.

Especially for South. The Warriors, have known long enough they weren't play-off bound. Even before the final meeting of the intra-city opponents, they suspected it. That particular game though, eliminated any doubt. So tomorrow's game takes on added incentive for the Warriors, who get another shot not only at the team that eliminated them from the conference race, but a genuine rival as well.

"When we're playing North," South head coach Stan Wojcik said, "it doesn't matter if we're 0-4, 1-0, or 4-3, you have to throw away everything that went on before when we met."

That includes any preconceived notions about supremacy or normalcy for that matter. "Sometimes the kids get too keyed up and make mistakes that the other team capitalizes on. The way it's worked out most of the times in North-South games though, is the team who scores first usually ends up winning."

With Althoff having laid claim to first place in the conference, tomorrow's game also will be a battle for the number two spot. And as Wojcik said, "Number two is better than number five."

Both schools enter the game with identical 4-3 records overall. North is 2-1 in the conference and South is 3-2, but North still has to face Edwardsville in its season finale next Friday.

Perhaps South's biggest setback this season was the loss through injury to fullback Scott Polson and halfback Jeff Bergerdrager. Wojcik thinks so.

"We lost with what you'd call the second line players in there," he said.

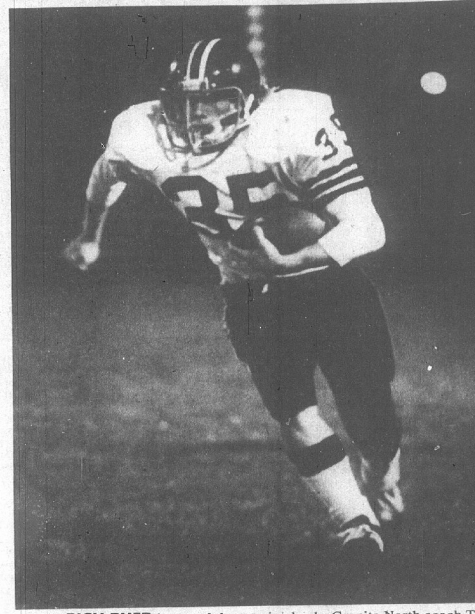

"Definitely, you think that they can do a job, or they wouldn't be in there, but you still worry about trying different things. When you've got everybody in you don't have to worry as much."

At North though, the thoughts still run along the "what if" line, remembering last week's disappointment. "We're still kind of downhearted over last week at Althoff," North head coach Tom Wyrstek said. "We just didn't play very well, and now it's kind of an anti-climax."

According to Wyrstek, North is at a disadvantage against South. "The team that won the first time is going to have it tougher, because it's already proven itself."

All that's left for the Steelers now, Wyrstek said, is pride. "You can't make something of nothing," he said, "but any time the two of us get together it's something."

"Any time they keep score it's something."

SUE among Div. II leaders

By AL BARNES
of the Press-Record

EDWARDSVILLE — What colleges are the top-ranking institutions overall in sports the past 10 years in Division II of the National Collegiate Athletic Association?

Of the leading 25, in an amazing 10th place are the Cougars of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, it has been revealed in an NCAA study just released.

Eight of the 25, including the No. 1 ranked Cal State-Northridge Matadors, are from California. The second place school, California-Irvine, is now an NCAA Division I aggregation which won the national baseball championship at Omaha, Neb., last June.

The Eastern Illinois Panthers, largely as a result of their strong track and field, plus football, basketball, baseball, soccer and wrestling programs, are in third place with an aggregate 2,901 points. Eastern won the football crown last year. Cal State-Northridge totaled 2,310 points with the help of 11 sports. Northridge built its lead with almost 2,000 points garnered in swimming, golf and gymnastics. The Matadors racked up eight team crowns, compared to three by SUE.

The relatively newcoming Cougars of SUE amassed 1,308 points after starting their intercollegiate programs in the 1967-68 school year.

In the sixth place slot are the Leathernecks of Western Illinois U., with 1,097 points.

A national championship (in 1972) in Division II soccer had to play a big part in SUE's lofty ranking. In addition, a second-place (1975) and third-place (1977) in the soccer Division I competition were a big factor in the Cougars' showing.

The Cougar kickers have never failed to qualify for NCAA post-season tournament play since they became eligible in 1969. The baseball teams at SUE, too, except for the past two seasons, qualified for 10 straight regional meets and advanced three times to the nationals, where they posted a third and a second under retired Coach Roy E. Lee. Bob Guelker is the architect of the soccer Cougars' success.

Quincy coaches praise SUE

Special To Press-Record

QUINCY — Head coach Jack MacKenzie and his assistant, Frank Longo, of the Quincy College soccer Hawks, interviewed this week, had had time to get over their collective disappointment in their team's 2-0 loss to the Cougars of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Saturday afternoon at Quincy.

Talking about the Hawks' defeat at the hands of the Cougars, Longo said, "This year's SUE soccer team is the best in their history. They kept the ball on the ground and constantly put the pressure on our kids. Tim Clark at sweepback was great, and he deftly picked up links Tim Guelker and Bob Bozoda, who, with Joe Howe, played tremendous defense first and then, whamo, they'd be off on offense. This tactic seemed to bother our kids. They simply wouldn't let us play our game."

MacKenzie was just as effusive in his praise of the Cougars: "There is only one team in American college soccer which can give SUE trouble and probably beat the Cougars and that's Alabama A & M. They beat us 4-1, and didn't start five of their regulars. Clark (Tim) in sweepback for the Cougars appeared to give the SUE defense a steadiness lacking until now. I don't mean that Howe (Joe) didn't do the job — it simply is a question of the fellows being more comfortable with Clark back there."

When pressed for a judgment on how the Cougars would do against St. Louis U. in the annual Bronze Boot Classic, Friday, Nov. 2, MacKenzie didn't hedge a bit, predicting: "SUE should win if the Cougars play the same type of game against the Bills that they did with us Saturday."

Quincy defeated the Bills, 1-0, just a week ago Sunday. It was definitely a very big victory for the Quincy Cougars. Coach Bob Guelker and his assistant, Rick Benben, now, with four SUE games remaining, in the biggest danger facing the Quincy Cougars was one of complacency and overconfidence.

WOODROME OLDSMOBILE'S PLAYER OF THE WEEK

On grid or diamond, he's top-notch

GRANITE CITY — For a baseball player, Blake (Hondo) Ambuehl isn't a bad quarterback.

Ambuehl, the Granite City South quarterback, is also a top-notch player for Babe Champion's South baseball team and for Tri-City Post 1300's American Legion team. But for now, the subject is football.

Ambuehl is a two-throw QB. He can run and he can pass. He proved it last Friday when he helped lead his Warrior team to a 20-0 Gateway East Conference victory over Cahokia in South's annual homecoming game.

Ambuehl, a 5-11, 161 pound senior, scored South's first two touchdowns in the second quarter, ran the ball five times for 30 yards and completed two of eight passes for 41 yards. For those reasons, he has been selected as the Woodrome Oldsmobile Player of the Week.

HONDO AMBUEHL

Ambuehl was one of three Warriors who were nominated for this week's honor. The others were linebacker Doug Spalding and running back Mark Clark. Other athletes nominated were South tennis players Laura Taylor and Pats voted to play in the conference. Eppingham abstained, with the rest of the members voting to dissolve the loop. The Mid-State is a Class 3A

Taylor track champion

By JEFF EAVES
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — The 1979 Tri-City Speedway point standings have been released by track promoter Gil Kimmel for the late model, sportsman and sprint car divisions.

In the late model division Dick Taylor, 3730, Mike Wallace 3420, Joe Ross of Mechanicsburg, Ill. 3275, C. C. Corbin of E. Alton, Ill. with 3229 points, Bill Myers of E. Alton with 2385 points, Gary Potter of St. Charles, Mo. with 2225 points, Kevin Gundacker of St. Louis with to win the division title over Mike Wallace of Arnold, Mo., by 310 points.

The top 10 drivers in the late model division final point standings are: Dick Taylor 3730, Mike Wallace 3420, Joe Ross of Mechanicsburg, Ill. 3275, C. C. Corbin of E. Alton, Ill. with 3229 points, Bill Myers of E. Alton with 2385 points, Gary Potter of St. Charles, Mo. with 2225 points, Kevin Gundacker of St. Louis with 1980 points, Mike Tobin of Springfield, Ill. with 1425 points, Bobby Regent of St. Charles, Mo. with 1245 points and Granite City late model driver Bill Laycock with 1210 points.

In the sportsman division, Rob Jones of Creve Coeur, Mo., who dominated racing all year including 11 feature wins, racked up 3430 points and was declared the 1979 sportsman champion.

Granite City drivers who placed well in the point standings were Mike Nickonovich in sixth place with 1420 points, Rod Bailey with 1415 points in the seventh position and in the 15th position, Paul Humphrey Jr., with 750 points.

The final point standings for 1979 go as follows: Rob Jones with 3430 points, Paul Humphrey Sr. of Dupu, Ill. with 2855 points, Don Holt of Vandalia, Mo. with 2585 points, Len Garson of St. Louis Co., Mo. with 2450 points, Dan Tournery of Hannibal, Mo. with 1905 points, Mike Nickonovich with 1420 points, Rod Bailey with 1415 points, Bill Regent of St. Charles, Mo. with 1260 points, Guy Pearson of St. Peter's Mo. with 1200 points and Roy Tobias of Elsberry, Mo. with 1135 points.

The sprint cars didn't run until the latter part of the season, but the 1979 sprint car champion is Larry Gates of Evansville, Ind., with 1300 points. The top 10 in the final points go as follows: Larry Gates 1300 points, Kenny Schrader of Baldwin, Mo. with 1265 points, Chet Johnson of Dennison, Ill., with 1055 points, Tony Robertson of Shelbyville,

Mid-state loop disbands

EFFINGHAM — The Mid-State Athletic Conference has voted to disband. The high school league has teams in Effingham (Senior), Taylorville, Pana, Vandalia, Hillsboro, Litchfield, Jewett, and Shelbyville.

The principals of the schools took the vote last night at a special meeting. Taylorville and Pana voted to stay in the conference. Effingham abstained, with the rest of the members voting to dissolve the loop. The Mid-State is a Class 3A football conference. In basketball, the league has only two Class AA (large school) teams, Effingham and Taylorville. Effingham's enrollment is about 970, while Taylorville's is 1120. It is doubtful if any of the teams involved would be interested in becoming the sixth or seventh team in the new Gateway East Conference, which Granite North and South belong to. Greenville is the closest and has an enrollment of only 733.

State champ rallies

EDWARDSVILLE — Defending state prep grid field hockey champion Edwardsville got a scare from Granite City South here Tuesday, but rallied in the second half for a 3-0 win. There was no score at halftime. South played a physical-type game and showed a strong defense. The win upped the Tigers' record to 9-0-1 on the season. They will play Mascoutah which Wednesday averaged an earlier loss at the hands of Granite City North 3-0. The North Steelers defeated Mascoutah in the first game of the season.

South downs East

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City South girls volleyball team had a good night Tuesday, but thing didn't go quite as well for cross-town school Granite North.

South won the first game against Belleville East in a 22-20 thriller, and had an easier time in the second, 20-5.

South battled back from a 20-19 deficit in the first game to win and scored 10 straight points in the second.

In the North match against Belleville West, things didn't go as planned for the Steelheads. Powerful West won its 19th straight match after an opening match loss to Freeburg by taking two straight, 20-9 and 20-16.

Top three places

ST. LOUIS — Three Granite City teams took the first three places here Saturday at the "Olympianthon Skale" at Forest Park to raise money for the U.S. Olympic Committee.

Mike Orasco won the first place gold medal, Nick Snyder the second place silver and Charles Payne the third place bronze. The skaters got local individuals to sponsor them in the "Skate-a-thon." The three of them raised a total of $112.58.

North substituted saw all the action - and scored two more goals, one of which was referred to by Kehoe as "the prettiest one of the game."

The goal was scored by Paul Tritschuh, off an assist from Paul Barrington. Tritschuh took the pass just past the midfield stripe and blasted a shot from about 35 feet out. "It was a perfect shot," said Kehoe. "It didn't touch anything but net."

Kehoe said the play of his club was encouraging. "It's a good sign when the subs are so fired up," he said. "They'll be the starters someday."

If North wins its game against Assumption today, it will face the winner of today's Collinsville-at-Edwardsville game Saturday at Steeler Field beginning at 2 p.m. The winner of that contest will advance to the North Sectional Oct. 30.

Madison was the Madison High School football game which was originally scheduled for tomorrow (Friday) night at 7:30 has been re-scheduled.

The game against Chatham-Glenwood will be played at Madison High Saturday, Oct. 27 at 1:30 p.m.

SUE grapplers ready for 1979-80 season

By DOUG IRVIN
for the Press-Record

EDWARDSVILLE — Larry Kristoff, veteran coach at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, who recently returned from coaching the United States wrestling team at the Spartakade Games in Munich and from the World Championships in San Diego, welcomed 30 new and returning grapplers at an introductory meeting recently on the SUE campus.

"We have the nucleus of a very good team," said Kristoff. "We have a lot of good returns, but... it is up to the kids and how much they want it."

Among the new wrestlers on the team is Joe Glasder from Cary, Ill. A freshman, Glasder won the Elite World Championships held at Fort Carson, Colo. in the 192-lb. weight class. The elite division is for 17- to 18-year-old athletes. Glasder posted a high school record of 38-2.

Also new to the "mats of Kristoff" are John McGrath, Erin Newman, Mike Steiner, Dave Stewart, John O'Dea, Hartline, Mike O'Dea, Duane Daniels and Scott Clement.

Kristoff has four All-American wrestlers returning. They are Tim Napier, Tommy Reed, Tim Ervin and Norm Mitchell.

Napier is this season's team captain. Last year, he wrestled at 158 pounds and placed second in the National Collegiate Athletic Association Division II.

Tommy Reed placed fourth in the same tournament in the 1977-78 season and third last year at 118. Ervin finished fifth in the 1976-77 season.

St. LOUIS — No collegiate soccer rivalry is as hotly contested as the annual match-up between the Cougars of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and the St. Louis University Billikens.

Since 1971, the teams' regular season match has been a battle for the coveted Bronze Boot trophy, in addition to its declaration of local dominance.

This year's match will be played Friday, Nov. 2, at the new Busch Memorial Stadium, beginning at 7:30 p.m. St. Louis has the advantage in the rivalry.

The match is perhaps the best showcase of local soccer talent. Anheuser-Busch honors the game's outstanding individual performer with the Budweiser Most Valuable Player award. In its second year, the Budweiser MVP is selected by a panel of judges consisting of local soccer authorities.

The first Budweiser MVP award was presented to St. Louis University midfielder Larry Hulcer after the Billikens' 1-0 victory over the Cougars in the 1978. Hulcer went on to play for the Los Angeles Aztecs of the North American Soccer League and earned the league's Rookie of the Year honors for the 1979 season.

"St. Louis has been recognized as the hotbed of soccer talent in this country, and it applies many collegiate and professional soccer rosters with its homegrown talent," said Dennis Long, president of Anheuser-Busch. "At the Bronze Boot match, we're going to spotlight one of those professional stars of tomorrow."

Throughout this season, both schools have been among the top teams in the country. St. Louis University, with an 11-2 record (as of Oct. 18), ranked eighth in the nation in the Intercollegiate Soccer Association of America national rankings.

SUE is ranked 13th. Sporting a 10-2-2 record, the Cougars have lost only to national champions, NCAA Division I champion University of San Francisco and Division II champs Seattle Pacific University.

The two other blemishes on the SUE record are the ties with the University of Missouri-Louis and the University of Evansville. Just one week ago, St. Louis lost to Quincy College 1-0, the Cougars' first loss in the series.

Comparisons of the two teams have to start on the forward line, where each has a high-scoring striker posing a continual threat to opponents. At St. Louis, junior Steve Sullivan has already notched 17 goals and two assists this season. Sullivan finds many of his goals scoring opportunities coming from assists by senior Tom Malle, whose 12 assists have him just five short of the school's single season assist record of 17, set by Pat McBride in 1963.

The Cougars' Don Ebert has found the back of the net 16 times in 1979 and has added another six assists. Constantly on the run, Ebert's goals are very often a result of his keen anticipation.

Both teams employ the 4-3-3 formation of four backs, three midfielders and three forwards. And each team has recorded seven shutouts of the both using a pair of goalkeepers throughout the season.

Students at the two schools anxiously await the annual Bronze Boot match-up. The Bronze Boot is more than a game, it is an event. The game is a cooperative effort of the two schools and the Catholic Youth Council soccer program.

Free masquerade ball for GC area 'seniors' Tuesday

The second annual Halloween Masquerade Ball for senior residents of Granite City is planned Tuesday evening, Oct. 30. The festive event will take place at the Granite City Township Building auditorium, 2060 Delmar Ave., from 7 o'clock until 10 Tuesday.

All senior residents in the community are invited to attend without charge.

Ball patrons also are being encouraged to wear masquerade costumes and compete for prizes, according to Nelson Hagnauer, GC Township supervisor.

Awards will be given for costumes in such categories as the most original, funniest and best dressed.

Refreshments will be served and music for dancing will be played by members of the American Federation of Musicians, Local 717.

Those planning to attend are asked to furnish their own transportation.

Individuals without any means of transportation may call the township office through Monday, Oct. 29, to reserve a ride on the CHORBUS, which will be operated on a limited basis Tuesday night, Hagnauer advised.

Hospital Notes

Sunday—Judy Baker, Penny Jackson, Doris Steinfeld, Betty Neeley, Ellis Ray, Harry Mann, all of Granite City; Mary Ann Hoffman, Mitchell; Nancy Shaw, Benec Rodriguez and Robert Houston, all of Madison; Jane Pournie, Collinsville; and Charles Gibson, Wood River.

Handball, racquetball lessons

GRANITE CITY — The Tri-City Area YMCA here is taking registrations for beginning handball and racquetball instruction, with classes beginning next week.

A beginning handball class will be taught by Matt Tueth on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7 p.m. He is currently the Missouri State B Division Champion.

Beginning racquetball lessons will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 8 to 9 p.m. and on Monday and Wednesday mornings from 10 to 11 a.m.

All classes meet for two weeks and class sizes are limited to eight people. Rules, positioning, serving, basic shots, and court etiquette will all be discussed. The fee is $8 per two-week class.

City Council acts to speed razing of buildings

By GARY SCHNEIDER
of the Press-Record
Persons who apply for a permit to raze a structure in Granite City will have only three months in which to demolish the structure, rather than the customary six months, Granite City aldermen decided Tuesday night.

Following a public hearing on the issue, the council voted to amend the zoning ordinance and limit to three months the interval between when a razing permit is issued and the time demolition begins. The change will be effective as soon as the ordinance is signed by the mayor.

Alderman Roy Paulos of the Third Ward requested the change, saying many persons were obtaining razing permits as a way of delaying the city from condemning dilapidated buildings. The ordinance was approved unanimously.

In other business, the city agreed to vacate streets and alleys directly south of the Granite City Steel hot strip mill to enable the steel company to fence in and better organize its truck loading area.

Vacated were 16th Street from Madison Avenue to Washington Avenue and related portions of Washington, Iowa and 16th Street and the alleys.

Attorney Leo Konzen noted the area currently is used for truck staging and loading, and all residential property in the vacated section has been purchased by the steel firm. Vacating of the streets (declaring them no longer property of the city) will enable Granite City Steel to move the entrance south and better organize the truck staging area.

In an unrelated action, the council accepted the extension of Parkview Drive east from where the street formerly ended. The extension, constructed by Stanley Lucas and the Granite City Park District, passes the south end of Worthen Park and will serve a subdivision now under construction near Stratford Lane.

City Traffic Engineer Ed Schuiz recommended that the city accept the street for maintenance purposes and the council concurred unanimously.

A letter was read from Assistant Fire Chief George Smolich urging the city to pick up limbs and brush being stacked by residents in the streets and on the parkways in many areas of the city.

Smolich contended the dried limbs are a fire hazard and said the fire department already has answered some calls where children have set stacks of brush and limbs on fire.

The fires could easily spread to nearby houses, vehicles or overhead power lines, the letter warned.

Fourth Ward Alderman Glen Sprankle agreed with the letter, saying he has received numerous phone calls from residents objecting to limbs and brush in the streets for long periods of time. "It is just out of hand," Sprankle said.

Alderman Sam Whitmer of the Second Ward disagreed, saying, "Don't put all the stigma on the city. People take brush from their yards and put it on public property. I think this should be stopped until the street department announces it is picking brush up again."

Alderman Paul Fisk of the Third Ward blamed professional tree trimmers for part of the problem and Mayor Paul Schuler added, "Some are street department employees, too."

collection service or is not giving it. The city has always given the service to the taxpayers, who are paying good money to us, and they deserve it. There should be one truck and crew full-time on brush."

Fourth Ward Alderman Warren Decatur contended, "The people have come to expect too much of the street department. We just cannot go on 52 weeks a year picking up brush. The street department has too many other priority things to do." Street Superintendent

Lionel Portell entered the controversy, saying, "A lot of our work is seasonal. Summer is one time a year we have for streets, alleys, curbs, concrete work and sewer repairs. If we do brush the year around, we will have to let something else go. We have to set priorities."

"The streets and sidewalks are our first priority. Most other towns are not providing the kind of service we provide. Believe me, they don't," he stated. Alderman Lloyd Bailey of the Fifth Ward said he believes part of the problem is air pollution regulations that prohibit the open burning of brush and limbs.

Alderman Mike Modrusic of the Seventh Ward, chairman of the council's street and alley committee, stated, "Hopefully, next year we will have this ironed out. This year we had a lot of sewer breaks."

"A shortage of trucks is another problem, but we are getting new trucks," he concluded. No official action was taken on the letter.

Library seeks grant

The next few years for the Granite City Public Library will bring challenges which will require additional revenues, the Granite City Council was told in a letter from the library director, read Tuesday night.

The library is in the process of applying for a "per capita" grant the state offers to libraries. The amount of the grant will be determined by the amount the state legislature approves for the program, the number of libraries which apply for funds, and the populations of those library districts.

Another requirement for the grant is that the library seek financial aid from the city's revenue sharing fund before applying for the state grant.

Therefore, a letter to the council was written seeking a portion of the city's federal revenue sharing funds, even though the chance of the city approving a sizable grant is considered doubtful, due to many demands on the revenue sharing grant.

Some of the priorities listed for the library include feasibility studies of constructing a permanent branch facility and of providing access for the handicapped to the main library.

Also sought is a full-time staff member to tape record the memories of senior citizens to preserve as a history of the area. The cost is estimated at $14,000 per year.

Another need, according to the letter, is a computer terminal which would enable the library to link with the computer being put in the Edwardsville library to ease bookkeeping and inventory chores.

A book detection and security system to guard the more than $1 million worth of books at the library also is sought at a cost of $15,630.

The council referred the letter to the finance committee to determine if some help can be found from revenue sharing funds.

Nursing profession rule change hearings

The Illinois Department of Registration and Education is moving to modernize and clarify the rules by which it licenses and regulates the nursing profession.

Toward that end, the department has scheduled public hearings Friday in Chicago and Thursday, Nov. 1, in Springfield.

Announcing the public hearing dates, Department Director Joan G. Anderson said this week that proposed new rules and regulations for the Illinois Nursing Act "will allow applicants for nursing licenses, nursing schools, and other interested persons to understand more readily the department's procedures."

Among the changes from the current rules is a provision to tighten up requirements for nursing candidates who have failed the licensing examination in the past. This step, the director said, "is designed to assure minimum competence."

It is the first overall revision in seven years of regulations for administration of the state's Nursing Act, and reflects a slash of almost two-thirds of the words comprising the present rules — from 28 pages to 10.

The first public hearing is scheduled for 10 a.m. tomorrow in the department's offices on the 17th floor at 55 E. Jackson Blvd., Chicago.

The second hearing is slated for 10 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 1, in the department's offices on the 3rd floor of 320 W. Washington St., Springfield.

Interested persons who cannot attend either hearing may submit written views and comments on the revised rules to Henry Arkin in the department's Chicago offices. They must be submitted by Nov. 12.

All testimony — both written and taken at the public hearings — will be considered in shaping the final form of the rules and regulations.

Basically, the proposal sets forth requirements and procedures for licensure by examination, including re-examination after failure, and licensure by endorsement. They also outline standards for nursing education programs.

Affected are candidates for both registered professional nurses (RNs) and licensed practical nurses (LPNs).

Under the proposal, RN candidates who fail the licensing examination six times will be required to complete an entire nursing program before being eligible for a seventh examination.

After the failure of a third examination, the candidate will have to show evidence of additional formal study, both clinical and theory, in the areas failed.

LPN candidates who fail the licensing examination four times will be required to give evidence of additional formal clinical and theory study in the areas failed.

Gymnastics instruction

A new four-week gymnastics session will begin Oct. 30 at the Tri-City Area YMCA for youths, six years old through high school. The class meets on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 4 to 4:45.

Theresa McFalls and Tina Taylor teach the class, which offers instruction in tumbling, parallel bars, balance beam and vault exercises. The cost for the four-week class is $2 for YMCA members and $10 for non-members. To register, call Cityans may stop by or call the "Y" at 876-7200.

After failing the examination six times, a candidate will be required to take a complete nursing education program. A nurse with a nursing license from outside Illinois may be licensed in Illinois, provided that the candidate has graduated from an approved nursing education program with "substantially the same educational criteria" as approved Illinois programs, and has passed an examination the department deems "reasonably equivalent" to the one in Illinois. The proposal reflects current policy that the Registration and Education Department will not release examination scores — without the candidate's approval — to anyone but the candidate.

In the past, examination scores have been released to schools of nursing by candidate name. Statistical analyses, which do not identify specific candidates will be permitted as the department deems appropriate.

Contrary to some misconception, the department has been administering the Illinois Nursing Act under rules and regulations promulgated in 1972.

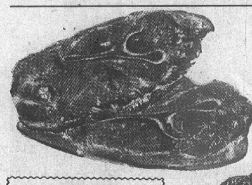

There were some rules proposed in 1975, but they were never promulgated and were never in effect.

It was more than a year ago that the department began working on the rules that are now going to public hearings.

one of 32 professional and occupational groups licensed and regulated by the department.

One hundred different licenses fall into those categories and they are held by more than 500,000 persons — about one adult in every 10 in Illinois.

Trinity United bazaar Saturday

Trinity United Methodist Church, E. 25th and Henry streets, will sponsor its fifth annual bazaar and supper Saturday.

The public is invited to attend the event, with booths opening at 9 a.m., according to Dorothy Cathey, general chairman.

Many handmade items will be offered for sale, Mrs. Cathey said.

Featured will be a hand-made quilt, afghans, candy, applebutter, needlework and Christmas gift items.

One of the booths will display "white elephant treasures," the chairman advised.

The annual spaghetti supper, served by men of the church, will take place from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday. The menu will consist of spaghetti and meat sauce, coleslaw, dessert and a beverage.

Tickets for the dinner, costing $2.50 each for adults and $1.50 for children, under 12 years, may be obtained at the door.

Proceeds from the bazaar and dinner will be added to the Trustees Improvement Fund.

A current project involving the fund is partial replacement of the church roof, the Rev. Paul Bryant, pastor, said.

New Alton Box Board president

Michael W. J. Smurfit has been elected president and chief executive officer of Alton Box Board Co., succeeding Edwin J. Spiegel Jr. in those capacities. Spiegel, who remains Alton Box Board chairman, announced Smurfit's election and the election of two new directors by the company's board last week.

Smurfit is chief executive officer of the Jefferson Smurfit Group Limited of Dublin, Ireland. The group now owns 51 percent of the outstanding common stock of Alton Box Board.

Alton Box Board Co. has 48 plants and more than 4,500 employees in 15 states engaged in paperback packaging, paper reclamation, and the manufacturing of folding cartons, corrugated shipping containers and paper tube products. Jefferson Smurfit is a holding company headquartered in Dublin with activities throughout the world, primarily centered in the packaging industry.

Central America is getting more attention

Public interest in Central America is decreasing since the overthrow of the Somoza regime in Nicaragua. But Richard Millett, SUE professor of history, predicts interest will increase now that civil unrest has broken out in El Salvador.

"El Salvador had an unpopular military government and has an overpopulated and polarized society with 30 percent unemployment. Problems also exist between the government and the church following executions of some of the priests," Millett said. There is an average of three people killed daily for political reasons, a high percentage in a country the size of El Salvador, he said. While the new government installed in El Salvador appears to offer some hope for meaningful change in that nation, there is a danger of a counter coup from the extreme right, he predicted. Millett earlier forecast a coup would occur. He also predicts that a civil war in El Salvador could be bloodier than the one in Nicaragua, which was the bloodiest in Central American history, with more than 20,000 killed and 15 percent of the population left refugees.

Millett, an authority on Central America, holds degrees from Harvard University and the University of New Mexico. He is a consultant to the U.S. State Department of the Department of Defense. He has made five guest appearances on the McNeill-Lehrer national television report and is the author of several books and magazine articles.

His most recent book was "The Restless Caribbean: Changing Patterns of International Relations." He has also signed a contract to write a book about Nicaragua. He freelances columns by invitation to newspapers and magazines, including the Los Angeles Times, Pacific News Services, Newsday and the Miami Herald. Millett, who has been studying since his junior year at Harvard, admits most of the demand he has received for columns and speaking engagements has come within the last 18 months.

"There are not too many people in the U.S. who have studied Nicaragua for 20 years. I testified before a Congressional committee before the situation exploded, and since then I have been very busy," he said.

Last year, he was involved in approximately 20 events, both formal speaking engagements and panel discussions.

"The Nicaraguan situation caused the U.S. to re-examine its policy toward Central America and to take a more positive approach. We are now taking the area more seriously by sending more competent ambassadors. The U.S. is also less willing to support dictators," he said.

"Policies may change if a new president is elected. If Connally or Reagan would be elected, it would mean total disaster for our relations with Latin America," he asserted.

"Nicaragua is now very fluid. There has been an improvement over the past regime, but the country is in a severe economic situation because of the past leadership.

"There is great spirit among the people. The new government has a broad political spectrum, but it is a naive government. Their prime concern is rebuilding the country."

Since the people did not like the old regime, they now have no love toward the U.S. because they feel the U.S. created and upheld the old government, he said.

"The new government is not controlled by any outside interests. They are too busy trying to rebuild their own country," he commented. Millett has visited Nicaragua 10 times. The most recent trip was last month.

"The country is in no threat of any further upheaval at this time. I keep up on the country through a subscription to La Prensa (The Press)."

Millett has lectured on two occasions for the Foreign Service Institute of the State Department. He presented the first paper at a recent State Department conference that was open only to the state employees.

He is also a senior research fellow for the Council on Hemispheric Affairs, a human rights lobbyist organization in Washington, D.C. The group is concerned with Latin America and all of the Western Hemisphere.

Millett's upcoming plans include coordinating a conference, "U.S. Media and Latin America," on the SUE campus Nov. 28-Dec. 1. It will be the annual meeting of the Illinois Conference on Latin American Studies and Latin Americans of the Greater St. Louis Area.

Conference for nurse education

A nursing workshop focusing on the competencies of the adult learner will be held at SUE Nov. 7 in the Mississippi-Illinois room of the University Center from 8:30 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Registration is $25, which includes the cost of instruction, materials, coffee breaks and a luncheon. Deadline for registration is Oct. 29.

The conference will allow nurse educators to learn more about evaluating nursing competencies of the adult learner.

Instructors will include Jerry D. Durham, instructor at the University of Illinois College of Nursing at the Peoria School of Medicine; O. W. Hascall, director of the proficiency examination program for the American College Testing program; Faith M. Jones, acting assistant dean for continuing education at the University of Illinois College of Nursing; and Mary Mergens, nursing program director for Iver Hills and Lakewood Community Colleges in St. Paul, Minn.

The workshop will be repeated at the Peoria School of Medicine and at the Illinois Union, University of Illinois Medical Center in Chicago.

TV PEOPLE

It's been told before, the tale of a headstrong youth who refuses to go into the family business and breaks out of the mold to become something scandalous: an actor, for instance.

And such is the story of Gregory Harrison, who shunned his family's glass-bottom boat business at Catalina Island, Calif., to become an actor, in which capacity he is now a star, with Pernell Roberts, of "Trapper John, M.D." The new CBS series, a blend of drama and comedy, is broadcast Sundays.

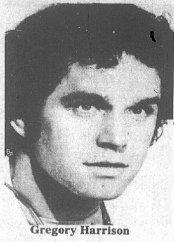

The story is familiar enough by now. Harrison portrays Dr. Gonzalo Gates, a cocky young surgeon who, 28 years after Korea, is dumbfounded Dr. John McIntyre — the legendary Trapper John of M.A.S.H. fame — with the kind of rule-flouting medicine that Trapper once dished out.

Three-quarters of a century ago, Harrison's grandfather established the glass-bottom boats, which have become a traditional attraction for island visitors, who peer through the bottoms at the flora and fauna of the offshore submarine gardens.

"I grew up in Avalon on Catalina," says Harrison, "and that's where I spent some of the happiest days of my life. It's a great place for a kid, but as an adult I find it awfully confining. The entire permanent population of Catalina is only about 2,000."

Harrison's father has been running the family business there since his father died in 1924, when the famous California evangelist, Aimee Semple McPherson, disappeared temporarily in what was later condemned in some quarters as a phony kidnapping.

It was though, at one point, Sister McPherson had drowned, and Grandfather Harrison was hired to make a rowboat search for her body around the pilings beneath the Santa Monica pier, a risky job because of the powerful surf that crashes against the pilings. Harrison was killed during the effort and Aimee was tried — and acquitted — as being responsible for his death.

Harrison, whose Gonzalo character operates in "Trapper John, M.D." at the mythical San Francisco Memorial Hospital, recalls that during his boyhood he, himself, was a likely prospect for surgery.

"The great white steamers were still plying between Avalon and the mainland then," he says, "and I was one of the kids who were always swimming in Avalon harbor as the ships arrived, waiting to dive for the coins tossed to us by the crowd on deck. That's how I made my living at the time."

"People would flip everything from pennies to silver dollars into the water, and, naturally, it was the half dollars and dollars that we kids dove after the hardest, trying to snag them before they were lost in the sand."

"In every crowd, there was always a sadist who liked to toss the valuable coins next to the ship's revolving propellers, knowing that I and a few other kids were reckless enough to go after them. Making it even more dangerous was the fact that the propellers, in that shallow water, would churn up clouds of sand from the bottom, making it difficult to see either the sinking coins or the propellers themselves. I came close to cashing in my chips more times than I like to remember."

"I'm still kind of impulsive about risking my neck, but I'd never do that again."

Love at first sight in movies and real life

By RUTH THOMPSON

Love at first sight. Even in hardboiled R-rated movies, that's often the magic moment when the audience stops talking (or hooting) and awaits further developments.

But how about love at first sight in real life? Does it happen?

A game show host once recalled asking Patty Duke when she and her husband John Astin first fell in love.

She said it was during an interview (for that) that he crossed in Chicago. She "knew" that he "knew" the chemistry was right — though, it so happened, they did not meet again for several years.

Astin, in another booth, did not hear her answer. Yes, he recalled the meeting. Patty was pretty, yes, he liked her. But did he fall in love on the spot? Well, heck, no, or words to that effect. The game show host reports that Patty cried.

(But not for long. The Astin marriage continues strong and they have five offspring: his hers and theirs.)

Chick Vennera, the earthy, exuberant Danny who instantly melts the defenses of Mollie, the bus conductor, in John Schlesinger's current film "Yanks," says yes, he did fall in love fast in real life and got married "before we knew where the rent money was coming from." The missus is Joanne Di Vito, now a choreographer.

"We met when I was hired to tour in 'Disney on Parade.' Joanne was a dance captain then. My mother had sent me to dancing school as a kid to keep me off the streets and out of fights. But for a couple of years after I got to California, I didn't let anybody know I could dance... not until after I'd made a reputation as a dramatic actor."

TV PEOPLE

As realistic as the Cosby Kids might seem, both to adults and to children, only three characters are based on actual people. The rest of the youngsters are the product of Bill Cosby's vivid imagination, brought to life by his boyhood memories. They are snippets of people here and there, pasted together to form a Muford or a Dumb Donald.

The antics of the Cosby Kids are depicted in "The Fat Albert Halloween Special," to be rebroadcast Monday, Oct. 22, on CBS.

As comedian Cosby explained, only he, his younger brother Russell and his mother are more-or-less portrayed accurately in the animated special.

"A few are total inventions created to fill a specific comedic need," Cosby said. "Most, like Fat Albert and Weird Harold, are composite caricatures of people I knew in my early years."

It takes a special talent to keep childhood memories alive and translate them into words, but Cosby is successful at it, delighting nightclub and television audiences with tales of his growing up in Philadelphia.

It takes yet another talent to go one step further to take those words and give them another life through animation. The artists responsible for creating the Cosby Kids worked closely with

And, no, the marriage suffered no strains. "It's just that both Joanne and I did want to start a family, but felt we couldn't until I could see at least two years' worth of income assured." A featured role in the movie "Thank God It's Friday" didn't assure him. Neither did roles in the "Vegas" pilot, nor the mini-series, "The Money Changers."

"But when 'Yanks' came along, that was it." And what also came along within the year was their first daughter, whom they named Nicole.

Berlinda Tolbert, who plays Jenny Willis Jefferson in the high-rated CBS series, "The Jeffersons," says that after seven months she's "still on my honeymoon," and she sounds blissful when she says it.

Her husband is NBC newsman Robert Reid. And how did they meet? Well, Berlinda took her first trip ever to Atlanta last winter to help promote a program for PBS. She also took along her own idea of a chaparral.

PBS being neutral territory, "Bob, too, was involved in the reception and assigned to show me the city. I was to be there only one day. But it snowed an almost unheard-of thing — so I had to stay over. And we were both invited to the same dinner party."

"Then I went on to Philadelphia to do some interviews over the weekend and he followed me. That's when we decided."

The place: Providence, R.I., "because they don't have the usual waiting period." The date: Feb. 14. "But not because it was Valentine's Day — I didn't even realize it was. My chaparral had to be back in Los Angeles the 15th and we wanted her at the wedding."

Bill Cosby

Cosby, and with good reason. Cosby explained: "I was the only one who really knew what they looked like. They were up there in my head, filed away back in my memory."

The characters Cosby uses repeatedly in his comedy monologues were relatively easy to bring to life. Cosby has described them often and in detail. Others had to be visualized from scratch. These were "designed by committee" in conferences between Cosby and the artists.

As Cosby explained, "When you're a stand-up comedian in a nightclub on television, you're a talking cartoonist. You paint images in the audience's heads. Interpreting those diverse images into one standard concept is tricky."

Halloween visit by Dracula

By RUTH BRADLEY
The night is dark. The moon, encased in mystic clouds, casts deep shadows into the night.
Suddenly, the quiet is shattered by shrieks — Eek! — Eek! — Eek! — as from the darkness a phantom figure with flashing fire-red eyes swoops down to claim his prey.

Somewhere in the night, a young woman named Lucy has begun the long descent into the crypt of Carfax Castle.

The month is October and the force of evil and darkness is "Dracula Baby," a musical comedy being presented by the East Bank Players.

Dates of performances, the cast will be on hand for special performances on Sunday, Oct. 28; Tuesday, Oct. 30; and Wednesday, Oct. 31 (Halloween night).
A spokesman for the group comments, "Bring the whole family and help East Bank celebrate its tenth anniversary by joining in the rollicking fun as Count Dracula and Renfield combine their strength in an effort to gain Lucy's soul by outwitting Professor Van Helsing, "source of evil and things that go 'boomp' in the night."

"Dracula Baby," under the direction of Norma Mendoza of Granite City, features Dan McGee as Dracula; Stanley Coleman as Professor Van Helsing; John Payne as Renfield; Gene Cassidy as Dr. Seward; Becky Podessa as Lucy; Tim Lipe as Arthur; Ann Scott as Chief Nurse; Eric Scott as Frank; Ron Allsup as Harry; and Dorothy Newbert as Sylvia.

The chorus, under the direction of Cathy Cassidy, consists of Karen Fuller, Ron Allsup, Gaye Beggschneider, Paula Ballew, Shelly Fruth, Susan Welby and Kathy Brodeur.

Understudies are Tony Becerra as Professor Van Helsing; Doug Elliot as Renfield; Jeanne Fuller as Lucy; Steve Phelps as Arthur; Barbara Modrusic as Chief Nurse; David Allsup as Dr. Seward; and Ruth Bradley as Sylvia.

Shelly Fruth and Jeanne Fuller combine their talents to choreograph the dance numbers.

Curtain time is 8:15 p.m., at Elliot's Three Mile House restaurant, located three miles out of Edwardsville on Route 159.

Prices are $4.50 for the show only, or $9.50 for dinner and show combination, with special rates for children. Reservations are being taken by Gene Cassidy, Granite City, 451-1540, and Three Mile House, 656-4116.

First U.S. yuletide for Asian youngsters

Twenty—and possibly 21—Southeast Asian children will experience their first Christmas on Dec. 18 at Union United Methodist Church, Belleville Area College's classes to teach English to refugees from Southeast Asia provide more than simple English studies.

The grant established for the project also includes funds for "acculturation activities." Students are taken to concerts, libraries, zoos and other American cultural and educational institutions.

They also get together for traditional American holidays—Thanksgiving, Christmas, Mother's Day and the like.

There are no funds for anything extraneous, however, and when the students and faculty assemble for Thanksgiving dinner, Asian dishes grace the table, along with a gigantic turkey and platter of dressing. When food is involved, pollock is the order of the day.

As there are no funds for banqueting, neither are there funds for presents from Santa. So presents for the 20 (and maybe 21) youngsters between the ages of (maybe) birth and fourteen years are being requested from the community.

Anyone or any group wishing to help in providing gifts for Santa's pack for the Southeast Asian children may contact Ann Hair in the Adult Basic Education department at Belleville Area College or Doris Slocum in the Public Information Office.

The Christmas party will include a get-together of all 40 refugees and their families for dinner, Santa Claus and Christmas carols. With the participation of community members, the real meaning of Christmas will be made especially clear, BAC staff members stress.

STEEL INDUSTRY DECLINES SLIGHTLY

The number of persons employed in the domestic steel industry declined slightly in August, according to late-October reports to the American Iron and Steel Institute. The number of persons engaged in production and marketing of steel was 462,583, down over 4,000 from the previous month, when 466,559 persons were employed. July's total had marked a two-year high in steel industry employment.

August's total was higher than the 456,409 persons employed in the industry during August of last year. The number of hourly employees also declined from the previous month; in August, there were 349,944 hourly employees, compared to 353,943 in July.

Wage and salary payments in August were $997,144,000. Total employment costs per hour for hourly employees reached $15.93 in August, including all fringe benefits. This cost averaged $14.30 for all of 1978.

YMCA life-span session for area's senior citizens

The Tri-City Area YMCA, in cooperation with the Metro-East Institute of Lifetime Learning, will hold a session of life-span review for area senior citizens, starting Nov. 1.

The role of this session will be to discuss and review various life occurrences to emphasize the joys of life. Individuals in the session will be asked to share personal experiences, and instruction will be given to anyone wishing to write his or her reminiscences.

Lois Lybarger will conduct the course with assistance by Shirley Grennell in a brief relaxation exercise period. Lois Lybarger has participated in community counseling services in Edwardsville and Highland, and holds a master degree in counselor education and a certification in gerontology.

In addition, she has experience in nursing home and counseling sessions.

All area senior citizens who wish to share and exchange various joys of life are being encouraged to attend.

The life-span review class will be conducted each Thursday from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. from Nov. 1 through Nov. 29.

The fee for the class is $1, with registration available at the YMCA main desk or the RSVP office in the "Y."

Participants in life-span review often go on to write articles concerning their life experiences, a spokesman noted. For additional information, Quad-Cityans may contact the YMCA at 876-7200 or Retired Senior Volunteers (RSVP) at 876-3223.

Bazaar Saturday at Nameoki Presbyterian

Hundreds of handcrafted items, together with homemade baked goods, home canned jams and jellies, toys, plants and room decorations, will be offered

Saturday at a special holiday bazaar at Nameoki United Presbyterian Church, 1700 Pontoon Road.

The public is being invited to patronize the event, starting at 9 a.m. Saturday. Francis and Edna Cease and Fred and Barbara Barr are co-chairmen of the project, which is being sponsored by the Windjammer Mariners, a couples' club.

The Rev. Don F. Pierson, pastor, said, "The bazaar is the largest event of its kind for our church and represents thousands of hours of work and planning by the Mariners group and others."

"The entire congregation is involved," he added.

Saturday's bazaar will feature such areas as: The Autumn Foliage Shop, Ye Oldie Stitches, Country Kitchen, The Garden Shop, Attic Treasures Corner, Children's Corner and Santa's Helpers' Shop.

Force lock on camper shell

Several items were taken from the camper shell of a truck owned by Dale Barnhart, 2135 Illinois Ave., he reported at 4:45 p.m. Monday.

The shell's lock was forced open. Stolen were a hydraulic jack, valued at $25, a carburetor, $30, a wheel and spare tire, $20, a hunting vest, $10, a tackle box containing shotgun cleaning equipment, $10, an army ammunition box with 20-gauge shotgun shells inside and a used car engine starter.

STEAL REAR WHEELS
Two rear wheels and tires worth $170 were removed from the 1970 Mustang of David Turnbough, 22154 Grand Ave., he reported at 10:30 p.m. Monday. The vehicle, parked in a rear yard, was left resting on concrete blocks.

Area folks prepare for fall bazaars

Church and school groups all over the Quad-Cities are busy setting things up for more of what seems to be one of the rites of fall, the bazaar.

In fellowship halls and cafeterias, people are getting together to make handicraft items to sell to help raise money for many worthwhile projects. It is an atmosphere of joyful, productive activity, with a few new things to be learned along the way.

Those who work toward making the fall bazaars possible are special people. They give their time and talents for the benefit of others. And, for them, it's a lot of fun as well.

If one knows something about quilting, crocheting or any craft, that knowledge is shared with the group making things for the bazaar. Each person who attends brings willing hands and a willing mind.

Nameoki Methodist Church, Pontoon Road and Murdock Avenue, is among the many that are having a fall bazaar. Theirs is this Saturday, beginning at 9 a.m.

As the ladies worked in the church fellowship hall, one could see that the project was no chore to them. As they created handmade dolls and Christmas tree ornaments and other craft items, they laughed and talked and seemed to be having a fine time.

Each brought her own skill and ability and knowledge, sharing that talent with the others.

One lady made placemats from yarn. She taught several of the others to make the placemats.

Another lady did ceramic tree ornaments, and the others helped to paint them. It was a time to learn and enjoy each other's company.

All over the area, the same sort of thing is happening. Church women and PTA members are putting their craft talents to use, creating a bevy of beautiful things for Quad-Cityans to buy and enjoy.

With the holiday season approaching, there will be things available to make that season brighter. And another of the fall traditions in the Quad-Cities will have made at least a part of the brightness happen.

PRETTY THINGS. The doll toaster cover above and the butterflies below are just a few of the things being made by area residents for bazaars.

Watching Marines land at Guantanamo

By ROBERT ESTILL

Press-Record
Washington Bureau

Guantanamo Bay, Cuba — Standing in the rain watching Marine amphibious vehicles lumber ashore, other reporters were asking what this flag-showing exercise would accomplish.

My concern was more personal. Just what the heck was I doing there?

And will the military brass discover that the contingent of 79 reporters covering the Navy base reinforcement exercise includes at least one happily unarmy 4-F?

My only exposure to the military was living on Naval bases as a child when my dad was an enlisted man. My only time in uniform was a stint in the Boy Scouts. All I knew about Marine landings was gleaned from watching John Wayne storm ashore.

It was not that I was unprepared. I had boned up on Cuba and the latest crisis there, and did a quick study on insignia.

I was supremely confident that if an admiral and a doorman were in the same room, I would be able to tell which was which.

Doubts still lingered. Most of my 18 years as a newsman have been spent covering government politics.

My primary mission — see how quickly the military jargon skips in — is to forage through Congress and the rest of the federal bureaucracies for stories of particular interest to Illinois readers.

But reporters, like soldiers, go where they are sent. And the chance to cover a Marine landing — even if the Marines were going to stay in their vehicles, never get their feet wet, nor fire a weapon — was too tempting for any John Wayne fan to miss.

It became readily apparent that covering the military is not unlike covering politicians. They are courteous, seemingly friendly and will tell you just exactly what they want you to know.

Public affairs officers provided reams of information and photographs of equipment to be used, presumably so one could tell the difference between a tank and jeep.

The "brass" were readily briefed aboard ship not to talk to any reporters. The brass said the orders were misunderstood: that the enlisted men were not supposed to talk to civilians — unless there was an officer standing by — for fear they might tip some military secrets to the Cubans.

Just what a Cuban civilian would be doing in the

But all things considered, the military does put on a good show for reporters.

The Navy flies you to the action in a C-9, the military counterpart of the civilian DC-9 and just as comfortable. All they lack is stewardesses.

Navy chow is basic, good, plentiful and inexpensive — free for enlisted men, and dinner for officers and civilian reporters cost $1.75, about a fourth what the same meal would cost in even a modest restaurant in Washington, D.C.

The bachelor enlisted men's quarters were sparse but comfortable. And there were reports some Marines planned to write their congressmen about having to give up their banks to make room for the news media.

Two Navy trucks and a school bus, pressed into service for the occasion, transported the press to the various landing areas.

The sight of tanks and armored assault craft rumbling onto windmill beach while assault helicopters hovered overhead is stirring — although not enough to send me to the local recruiter (would they want a 38-year-old private?).

All in all, it was comfortable way to view a "war."

Since this was only a mock war, it was fitting there that there be at least one "mock war correspondent."

But when they start using live ammo, I will retreat to my desk.

Driving in Washington traffic and listening to droning congressmen is hazardous enough for me.
